

condition of the same to the county commissioners at the regular meeting in said month, with any recommendations that they may desire to make, and with a statement of the cost of repairs or improvements made by them up to that time, attaching to said statement an affidavit in the usual form; and they shall also, at the same time, report to the county commissioners the name of any supervisor who may have failed to perform his duties as defined in this act; and the road commissioners in each election district, with the county commissioner in charge of said district, shall make, prior to the first day of each of the months of January, April, July and October in each year, a general inspection of the roads therein, and shall determine whether said roads are in the condition required by law, and report their determination to the county commissioners; and immediately after said inspection the road commissioners shall meet to issue to the road supervisors, who have complied with the law, certificates for one-fourth of the yearly proportion of their contracts, but no certificate shall be issued except upon the concurrence of at least two of said commissioners, who shall also affix their names to said certificates, and the said certificates shall be paid by the clerk of the county commissioners on presentation to him, and the compensation of the road commissioner shall be two dollars per day for every day that they may be necessarily engaged in the performance of their duties, said compensation not to exceed in aggregate for any one year more than fifty dollars, except for services rendered in making repairs and improvements; and in case of the failure or refusal of any road commissioner to perform his duties, the county commissioners shall proceed against him in the same manner as against a delinquent road supervisor.

Make general inspection.

Issue certificates.

Compensation of road commissioner.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That whenever any person or persons shall desire to improve any road to an extent beyond that required by this act, they shall make application in writing to the county commissioners, who shall direct the road commissioners for the election district in which the road is located, to view the same and report whether in their judgment the improvements should be made, and also the estimated cost of said improvements; and the county commissioners may thereupon order said improvements to be made, provided the persons making appli-

Make application in writing.