speech just before the school's commencement exercises.

The speech, which Miss Stewart hastily paraphased at the insistence of the audience; called the Lake Clifton leader a "dictator" and a "reverse racist" who treated black students badly.

(Prior to the graduation Miss Stewart and her parents had complained to regional superintendent, Mrs Thelma Cox, that Mosley planned not to use the word valedictorian in the graduation exercises. Dr. John Gist, deputy superintendent, later ordered that the word be put back in.)

Reacting to the speech and the events that led up to its presentation, a special ad hoc committee of the School board reviewed Miss Stewart June 28 to hear her side of the story.

"I thought they were going to take action against him then and there," she had said in an earlier interview.

But, Mosley later assumed the post of regional superintendent, Region 4.

Mark Joseph, president of the board, had said the only action they would take is to investigate the possibility of creating a hard and fast rule on the use of the word 'valedictorian.'

Robinson said he expects to complete his preliminary investigation sometime Monday or Tuesday and he will be meeting again with the Stewarts at that time.

"There seems to be a denial of free speech," he said. "But I have to check the (law) books to see where we stand."

(Editor's Note: The following is the text of the speech Miss Donna Stewart was to have made at the June 4 Lake Clifton Senior High School graduation. The speech was confiscated by school officials and now Miss Stewart is exploring court action.

Parents, friends, faculty, administrators and honored guests.

Since 1973, Lake Clifton has been run by a dictator. We have been told what to do and how and when to do it. The personal needs of the black students of Lake Clifton have been almost totally ignored. In essence, we have been treated like colored people.

We have been insulted by dress codes which threaten our culture and misrepresented through the press. Now buses are routed to the school. Consequently, old buses, which served a larger number of black students, were discontinued. Nevertheless, we preserved. We never gave up the struggle, but we were never heard.

There has been a conspiracy going on at Lake Clifton for over two years that has affected the black students deeply. We have been threatened with suspensions and bad recommendations. We have been bitting our tongues to the end and now we are tired and oppressed.

Until recently, this dictator had not affected me personally. Many people have been hearing about my situation, but very few know the truth.

The truth is that this dictator has been trying since September of 1976 to strike the term valedictorian from the graduation exercises. Whatever his reasons are for this change, I know that he had an ulterior motive because the reasons that he gives do not apply to me because I am an individual. This dictator made a decision that was not his to make and I chose to fight him.

Since then, I have been to Region Two, two television stations and three newspapers to find out why something that I struggled so hard for 12 years was being taken away from me and to make the community aware of this dictator who has used Lake Clifton Senior High School as a pleasure palace and a stepping stone to bigger and better things.

I fought and I won. He was forced to repeal his decision on the same night that he was appointed a superintendent of Baltimore City Public Schools. I won but now all of you will lose because this man is not only a dictator but he is also one of the most severe reverse racists that Baltimore city public schools have ever known.

Now you can sit back and let your children be hurt by this dictator or you can fight back. If you do fight, you better fight hard because he informed me that my efforts to get the press involved in the scandal at Lake Clifton were futile.

He told me, in essence, that he doesn't care what I, or anyone else does against him because he knows that "they love me," referring to the press. He also informed me that no one believed me and they all know that I am wrong.

Now, it is up to you. You can continue to deny the reality of this nightmare or you can take them.

I have a brother and a sister in Baltimore City public schools and I have not even begun to fight. Now it's up to you.

BOUND FOR BUCKNELL COLLEGE in late August Miss Donna Stewart is considering suing the city school system.

downtown, it was a pleasure to see old friends, scores of employees who still there. In all those years, we have never witnessed unpleasantness.

It was like a family, with jurists, state attorneys and clerks, regardless of race, visiting in the halls and passing on news on the grapevine, as it is called.

AWARE of the rights of the press, all persons were happy to help with records and information.

BUT, one sage came this week when we encountered a young woman who snapped at her, and also employees in her department. She hollered and bellowed at them and obviously felt called upon to cut up in boss-y.

Her superior officer said he had received complaints and will take measures to make the public sure the taxpayers get better service.

BIGGEST WEDDING yet is coming Aug. 27 and the 1,000 invitations now in the mails indicate the affair will be one long remembered as fantastic.

The single-ring ritual will join two large church congregations, St. Paul Baptist and Jones Tabernacle Baptist.

The couple to exchange vows is the Rev. Benjamin Cornelius Jones, son of Elizabeth Crawley Jones and William Jones and Rev. Cynthia Bernadette Jones, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Eugene Jones and granddaughter of Undertaker and Mrs. Charles C. Rice. Miss Jones name is emein Jones.

BRIDE-ROOM-TO-BE is also the nephew of Rev. Dr. George Crawley Jr. and Dr. Crawley Sr.'s grandson. The Rev. Dr. George Crawley will read the vows and he and the bride's father will be in the huge wedding party holy communion.

THE EVENT will crowd the Jones Tabernacle Baptist Church at Pulaski and Baltimore Sts. out to the curb and around the corner and we'll be there.

EXCITED is mother of the bridegroom. Mrs Elizabeth Jones, who when we talked with her, was in her kitchen finishing up 12 quarts of plum preserves "done the old-fashioned canning way."

Other preserving she does is by freezing, "much easier." Of talk about a good cook, Elizabeth is the best.
