Edgar Carter

Edgar Carter preaches trial sermon

"Jesus Can Fix It," was the theme for the trial sermon of Edgar Carter, 35-year-old lifetime member of Bethel AME Church.

Carter, who is an administrative assistant at the Carter Clinical Laboratory said he had resisted the call for quite sometime and decided he could no longer say 'no' to God.

He is the fifth member of Bethel to be called into the ministry since Rev. Dr. John R. Bryant has been pastor.

Carter told the story of Bartimeus, a blind baby who called on Jesus and received his sight through faith. This was taken from Mark 10:45-52.

Carter, who has been an active member of Bethel for several years is the president of the Brotherhood at the church and a steward at Bethel.

"I felt good about my trial sermon and was strongly reassured that God was truly with me. I had prayed that I might be able to bring someone closer to Christ and I was blessed when three souls, one of whom was a convert joined the church at my trial sermon," said Carter.

Carter would like to have his own church in the future. He said he wants to have a church "that is not confined to the walls around it."

A graduate of Morgan State University, Carter stated he has received nothing but "support from all areas of his church, family and friends."

He and Ms. Marie Phillips Cooke, who preached her trial sermon at Bethel on Dec. 4 received their licenses Dec. 11.

Carter is the son of Herman Carter Sr. and Mrs. Elizabeth Carter. He has one brother, Herman Carter Jr., a sister, Mrs. Ellen Cooper and brother-in-law, Dr. Quincy Cooper.

Church honors Bishop Ceaser

"A Salute To A God Sent Man," was the theme for the banquet of Bishop Leo K. Ceaser.

Bishop Ceaser has been the pastor of Mount Olive Free Will Baptist Church since 1949.

Under his leadership the First Mount Olive Free Will Baptist Church has progressed from a small store front to one of the largest Free Will Baptist Churches in the state.

Nathaniel Barr presided at the banquet with more than 500 guests attending. Among participants on the program were Cong. Parren J. Mitchell, Bishop Harold I. Williams, Rev. Paul Lee, Rev. Olin P. Moyd, Mrs. Jenny Butler and Mrs. Mary Frances Polk.

IN MEMORIAM

BATES — In loving memory of our beloved mother and grandmother, ANNIE MAE BATES, who departed this life December 16, 1972.
God made lots of beautiful things;
Sunset and roses and trees.
Birds and starlight and loyal friends
And after He made all these
He gave to the earth a gift more rare.
More loving and more true,
Of all God's gifts the one most rare
A Mother as dear as you.
Lovingly — BUTCH, MAXINE, YONA and THANDIWA MOODY.

BROWN — In loving memory of my dear husband and father, HYMAN BROWN, who passed away December 12, 1947:
A silent thought, a secret tear
Keep our memory ever dear
Time takes away the edge of grief,
But memory turns back every leaf.
Wife — BERNICE
Daughter, MARGARET.

COPELAND — A tribute of love to the memory of my beloved brother, FREDDIE COPELAND, who passed away December 14, 1975.
I do not need a special day,
To bring you to my mind;
The days I do not think of you
Are very hard to find.
If all this world were mine to give,
I'd give it, yes, and more.
To see the face of my dear brother,
On this Winter morn.
Devoted Sister — EVELYN COPELAND PERRY.

HUBBARD — In loving memory of our dear daughter, MARY LEE, who departed this life December 14, 1949:
Sad and sudden was the call
Of the one so dear,
We often sit and think of you
And speak of how you died
To think you could not say good-bye
Before you closed your eyes.
God grant you eternal rest.
Devoted — MOTHER, STEPFATHER, CHILDREN, SISTERS and BROTHERS.

TOYER — In loving memory of our loved one, REV. NOBLE H. TOYER, who passed away December 18, 1976:
It's hard to believe one year has passed
Since you were with us last

God took you home, it was his will
Within our hearts you still live.
