

SIGNIFICANT CHANGES IN LAND BETWEEN FIRST ELECTION AND DEATH: purchased at least 200 acres in 1726, 100 acres in 1730, and 100 acres in 1742, all in Baltimore County; patented 24 acres in 1728, 340 acres in 1729, and resurveyed his home plantation for a net gain of 103 acres, 1731, all in Baltimore County; sold 200 acres in 1742, Baltimore County. WEALTH AT DEATH. DIED: on March 20, 1744/45, in Baltimore County. PERSONAL PROPERTY: size of estate unknown. LAND: ca. 2,750 acres in Baltimore County.

SCOTT, EDWARD (?–1725). IMMIGRATED: probably by 1692, definitely by 1702, probably as a free adult. RESIDED: on Langford Bay, Kent County. FAMILY BACKGROUND. BROTHER: probably William (?–1715), who married Sarah, daughter of John Porter of Bristol, a chirurgion. MARRIED first, on April 17, 1702, Martha Tilden (?–1723), daughter of Charles Tilden (?–1699), stepdaughter of Elias King (?–1706/7). Her brothers were Marmaduke Tilden (?–1726); John, who married Catherine Blay, daughter of William Blay (ca. 1681–1716). Her sister was Wealthy Ann, who married Thomas Hynson, son of Charles Hynson (1663–1711). Her nephew was John Tilden (1725–1764). MARRIED second, on June 23, 1724, Rachel (1703–1746), daughter of William Blay (ca. 1681–1716) and wife Isabella; stepdaughter of John Johnston; granddaughter of William Pearce (ca. 1641–1720/21). Rachel was the niece of Daniel Pearce (1677–1727); Elizabeth Pearce, who married Henry Ward (?–1734). Her brothers were Edward (1707–?) ; William (1714–?). Her sisters were Catherine; Isabella. Her first cousin was Margaret Ward (1716–?), who married Benjamin Pearce (1711/12–1756). Rachel married second, by 1727, John Brown, and third, Aquila Paca (ca. 1703–1743/44). CHILDREN. SONS: John (1717–1723); Marmaduke (?–1723); Edward (?–1729), who married Hannah (1708/9–?), daughter of James Smith (ca. 1683–1760); William; Charles; and John (1725–?). DAUGHTERS: Mary (1702/3–?), who married (first name unknown) Chantellor; Lothia; and Martha (?–1723). PRIVATE CAREER. EDUCATION: literate. RELIGIOUS AFFILIATION: Anglican, St. Paul's Parish, Kent County. SOCIAL STATUS AND ACTIVITIES: perhaps the same Edward Scott who was a taxable in the household of Thomas Hammond (?–ca. 1724/25) in Baltimore County in 1692 and head of his own household in 1694; Gent., by 1715; Esq., in 1717. OCCUPATIONAL PROFILE: merchant, 1716–1717, 1722–1723; factor for John Falconer of London, 1723; planter; owned a water mill at death. PUBLIC CAREER. LEGISLATIVE SERVICE: Lower House, Kent County, 1710–1711 (elected to the 3rd session of the 1708B–1711 Assembly), 1712–1714 (Accounts 1–4), 1716–1718 (Accounts 1–3). LOCAL OFFICES: sheriff, Kent County, 1705–1707; St. Paul's Parish Vestry, 1709–1713, 1715–1725; justice, by 1710—at least 1720 (quorum, 1714/15—at least 1720). MILITARY SERVICE: captain, by 1707; lieutenant colonel, by 1715; colonel, by 1718. WEALTH DURING LIFETIME. LAND AT FIRST ELECTION: at least 300 acres. WEALTH AT DEATH. DIED: between November 2 and November 15, 1725. PERSONAL PROPERTY: TEV, £2,030.2.6 (including 1 servant and 35 slaves); FB, £1,051.6.11. LAND: over 3,000 acres.

SCOTT, GEORGE (1736–1809). BORN: June 21, 1736, in Anne Arundel County. NATIVE: at least second generation. RESIDED: in Frederick Town, Frederick County, until ca. 1790, and then Boonsboro, Washington County, until death. FAMILY BACKGROUND. FATHER: George Scott (?–1771), Esq., resided in Anne Arundel County until ca. 1754, then Prince George's and Frederick counties; a farmer of the quit rents for Frederick County, deputy commissary of Prince George's County, and sheriff of Frederick County in 1764; a tailor/merchant. MOTHER: Elizabeth, daughter of Margaret Dick (?–1756). BROTHERS: John (by 1749–?); Andrew Scott (?–?). SISTERS: Margaret (by 1749–?); Ann; Isabella; Arianna; and Elizabeth (by 1749–?). MARRIED by 1769 Mary Ann (?–by 1812), daughter of Jacob Young (?–1805) and wife Eleanor Beatty. Mary Ann was the stepdaughter of Catherine Karhn. Her brothers were John, a minor in 1805; Jacob, Jr. (1761–?); and Isaac (1763–?). Her first cousin was John Dow Cary (?–?). CHILDREN. perhaps five, including POSSIBLE SON: George. DAUGHTER: Eleanor, who married (first name unknown) Kennedy. PRIVATE CAREER. EDUCATION: literate. RELIGIOUS AFFILIATION: Protestant. SOCIAL STATUS AND ACTIVITIES: Esq., by 1776. OCCUPATIONAL PROFILE: farmer; merchant in Frederick Town in 1786; appears to have sold linen to the army for sheets and tents during the Revolutionary War. PUBLIC CAREER. LEGISLATIVE SERVICE: 1st Convention, Frederick County, 1774 (appointed, but did not attend). LOCAL OFFICES: Committee of Correspondence, Frederick County, elected 1774; justice, Frederick County, 1775–1790 (resigned by January 22, 1791, to move to Washington County); commissioner of the tax for Frederick County,