'78 Seafood Festival planned for September

Plans for the 1978 Maryland Seafood Festival have been announced by the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Annapolis, sponsors of the annual event which will celebrate its twelth anniversary this year.

Festival days will be Friday, Sept. 8 thru Sunday, Sept. 10th at Sandy Point State Park, Annapolis.

The Festival dates were announced recently by Gerald T. Brady, Festival president and Rodney Ord, Festival chairman.

Ord outlined some of the preliminary plans for the event.

"We want to raise money for charitable organizations which the Festival supports by giving the public the best time they can have for the entire family, Ord said.

The menu will include fried and steamed clams, oysters, crabs and crab cakes and several varieties of fish.

In addition, there will be hot dogs and hamburgers, a variety of vegetables, including corn - on - the - cob, fried and boiled potatoes, and pizza.

In addition to continuous live entertainment, the Festival will have numerous displays and exhibits on the grounds. Details on displays and exhibits will be announced at a later date.

Sandy Point State Park is located off Route 50 at the west end of the Chesapeake Bay Bridge.

Further information on the Maryland Seafood Festival is available from the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Annapolis, 171 Conduit St., Annapolis, Md., 21401, 268-7676.

The first Sugar Hill Assembly reunion was hosted a few Saturdays ago at the Blue Crest North. Some 800 old neighbors and friends gathered for the affair.

The affair began with a cocktail hour followed by a dinner of filet mignon and other goodies. Music was provided by the Chico Johnson Trio.

Color scheme for the extravaganza was pink and red and was carried throughout by members of the Steering Committee.

Folks from far and near attended the affair including those out-of-towners from California, New Jersey, Minnesota, Ohio, New York, Texas, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and even Africa.

Following the affair some members of the Steering Committee held parties in the Warren House for guests.

Preparations are already on the way for the Second Annual Sugar Hill Assembly Reunion to be held in May, 1979.

Steering Committee members included Edward Peck, Bernice Herndon Burroughs, John Butler, Thelma Robinson Leeds, William Morton, Ruth Jennifer Perkins, Vivian Sheridan Reed,
