Catonsville Notes

By Liz Williams

Sympathy cards to the family of Art Murphy who died suddenly after playing tennis in Druid Hill Park last Saturday. He was a graduate of Morgan University and the University of Maryland Law School. Art, as we all fondly knew him, was elected to the House Of Delegates in 1975.

He is survived by his wife the former Margaret Humphries, two daughters Denise and Lynn, a son, Arthur Murphy Jr. and his mother, Mrs. Gracie F. Murphy. Art Murphy will be missed by all. He was a nice guy.

Funeral services were held during the week for Louise R. Martin, a longtime member of Trinity AME Church. Prior to her retirement, Louise worked for many years at Hutzlers, downtown.

Funeral services were held at the Morgan Christian Center for the former longtime president of Morgan University, Dr. Martin Jenkins.

Get well cards to Marie Young who is in Lutheran Hospital. Continue to remember all of the known sick and shut-ins.

Congratulations to Dr. R. Marcia Lewie Watson, the daughter of L. Arthur and Reva Lewie. Marcia recently graduated from the University Of Maryland School Of Medicine. She will be doing her residency in radiology at Grady and Emory Hospitals in Atlanta, Ga.

Congratulations also to Charles Preston Howard III the son of Catherine Taylor Howard and Charles Howard Jr. Charles, fondly known as Chuck, who won first place in the NAACP Citywide Debating Contest, as a part of the NAACP ACT - SO project.

He will compete in the national debate which will be held in Portland, Ore. at the national convention, June 28 - July 8. A total of six high school students will be sent to the convention by the Baltimore chapter to compete in other areas. Chuck is a 9th grader at Boys' Latin. His sister, Trina, is a 10th grader at Archbishop Keough High School.

Congratulations to Patrice Hall, the daughter of Vera W. Hall and Calvin Hall, who graduated, cum laude, from the University Of Pennsylvania. About 20 relatives and friends from these parts attended the graduation. Henry Horsey (Mary), the proud godfather was also there. Patrice expects to do graduate work at the university in the fall, continuing her major - psychology.

Patricia Harris, secretary, HUD was the guest speaker.

Congratulations to Cory "Nickie" Savage, the son of Edward and Gladys Savage. This bright young man won a full four year scholarship to the University Of Wisconsin. His dad is a mechanical designer for Mueller Associates, Inc., Consulting Engineers, and his Mom is a longtime employee at Social Security. Nickie by the way, attended Northwestern High School.

Among other graduates from Northwestern and their schools are: Tyrone Goodman "Unsung Hero," UMES or S. Carolina State; Tyrone Carter, UMES; Darryl Ward, Prostburg; Cheryl Stokes, University of Maryland; Sandra Briscoe, General Motors Institute of Technology; Earl Cornish, Northeastern University; Simone Washington, Georgia Technology; David Brown, Morehouse; Timmy Andrews, Washington University and Emery Lee, Berklay College Conservatory for Music.

Congratulations to Matthew Frailing Jr., the choir director at St. Gregory the Great Church who will be ordained a deacon on Sunday. Matt and another gentleman will be ordained by the bishop from Nigeria. More about the ordination next week. Clara, the Baltimore county educator is Matt's spouse.

Congratulations to Wilma Smith and Ricky Roberts who recently graduated from Catonsville High School. Ricky is the son of Bill and Gladys Roberts. Gladys is now out of the hospital and is resting at home. Send Thinking of You cards to her.

Michele Gundy, the daughter of Les and Sylvia Gundy was in a production of the Westside Story which was given by the Columbia School of Theatrical Arts. Michele is a student at the school. She will be appearing with the "Young Columbians" in Williamsburg, Va. all summer. They will be doing a musical salute to America at the 1776 resort.

Delores King, daughter of Eugene and Evelyn King is a student at the school and also appeared in the Westside Story. Congratulations to these young people who should make good in the "Theatrical Arts."

Congratulations to all fathers on this coming Father's Day. May God bless you all.

Woodlawn Highlights

By Marjorie Green

"We are our brothers keeper." SSA employees who attended the "Sobriety Day" session last Friday afternoon, where former U.S. Congressman Wilbur Mills spoke candidly about his alcohol affliction, left the session very much aware of the fact that each of us is indeed "our brothers keeper."

In his first appearance as guest speaker inside the Woodlawn complex, Mr. Mills charmed the large audience with the wit and humor he interjected into his serious presentation on what he called the nations No. 1 killer, alcoholism.

The audience listened sympathetically at first and then with open admiration as he recalled his life in Arkansas, his early days in the U.S. Congress and the struggle to avoid admitting that he was an alcoholic. He talked openly about the personal problems he encountered because of alcoholism and the affect it had on his 38 year congressional career, 17 of which he served as chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee.

In a private conversation with this columnist Mr. Mills stated that although he misses the close relationships, he has no regrets about his departure from the Washington scene. In spite of his constant reference to his "ego" during the Washington years, Mr. Mills talked with a great deal of humility when he stated that "Sobriety is the equivilent of freedom." At age 69, he admits that he is just beginning to know himself. He also stated that he is happy in the knowledge that he is helping others to better understand the disease of alcoholism.

There was a note of tenderness in his voice when he mentioned that he could not have recovered from his serious illness without the love and support of his wife Polly, who accompanied him on the Woodlawn visit.

Acting Commissioner Don Wortman in his introduction remarks spoke of the courage that it took for the former Congressman to acknowledge an affliction that is not always met with understanding in this decade.

In addition to his weekend speaking engagements, Mr. Mills is employed as a corporate tax consultant with a law firm, in Washington, D.C.

Council One of the Blue Ridge Region International Toastmistress Club will hold their installation meeting at the Holiday Inn, Route 40 on Saturday, June 17.

The theme for the luncheon will be "Reflections of Yesterday, Today." Mrs. Gwendolyn moore will conduct a workshop on Protocol as part of the afternoon activities. There will also be presentations of club highlights.

New officers who will be installed are; president, Janice Jackson, "Vita Toastmistress Club; vice president, Maralyn Marske, security; secretary, Lillie Johnson, Chesapeake; treasurer, Viola Francis, Baltivox. Current Council president is Raymona Robinson, Woodlawn Toastmistress Club.

Registration will take place at 8:30 a.m.

There's more to our cereal than meets the taste bud.

Like the natural goodness from corn, wheat, rice and oats. And the consistency insured by our rigorous quality control.

And package-dating to help insure freshness. And the fact that our fortified cereals contain 25% of the U.S. RDA of 7 essential vitamins and at least 10% of the U.S. RDA of vitamin D and iron, for a very smart start.

Kellogg's® cereal.

An important part of a complete breakfast.

More than just "good."

Kellogg's® A very smart start.

A weekend birthday celebration for an 8 - year - old began with a slumber (pajama) party on Friday and ended on Sunday for Jaime Tribble and her ultra young female guests.

On Saturday afternoon, after sleeping only a wee part of the night, Alfreda Barnes, Tina Fox, Shelley Glascoe, Janel Green, Kelly Tribble (Jaime's cousin), Thomasena Dinder, Demetria Newson, Joni Wharton and Vashti Paylor were taken to Enchanted Forest to be entertained with rides, a picnic lunch, and then the real thing—ice cream, cake and punch in the Gingerbread House.

Mrs. Pamela Fredericks, Jaime's mother, was glad to see them come—and - you finish the story, HAPPY BIRTHDAY, Jaime.

An adult surprise party was hosted by Lorenze Stewart for Ms. Gloria Minor at his Gwynn Oak Avenue home.

Shouting 'Surprise' were Edward Morales, Lloyd Richardson, Velma Gay from New York City, Edna Simmons, Nassai Boyd, Earl Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Pringle, Priscilla Brown, Allen Burris, Gloria Jones, Sheila Comegys, Joyce Loudd, from California and Walter Stewart and his daughter, Nicey.

Do our women believe in the future of the Young Women's Christian Association? Are they willing to volunteer their time to support the activities of the center in their community?

To answer both questions we say YES!!! At the meeting of the Madison Avenue YWCA Center on Monday evening a cross - section of women were present to begin service on the center's board of directors, on which we serve.

The meeting marked the completion of the second term of Annette Howard Hall, who has chaired the committee for two years. She was praised for her dedication and service by incoming president, Elizabeth Murphy Moss and other committee members.

New vice president taking office is Phyllis Atkins. Secretary is Linda F. Jones.

Special salute was given three veteran members of the committee who will be rotating off the board this year, but who will remain active in the association's activities.

They are Ethel J. Day, who will continue as Madison's membership chairperson; Patricia Page, the center's representative to the Metropolitan Y finance committee; and Ellen Fisher, who is vice president of the Greater Baltimore YW. (Gwendolyn Brooks, another longtime Madison member, is president of the entire Baltimore YW association)

Our good friend and sister, Marcia Boddie Cummings, Madison Center director, outlined for new members the programs and plans for Madison Center, and secured promises of support for upcoming activities. Among them, the summer camp which begins June 26, through July 31; the teen canteen, held Monday - Friday, 6:30 - 9:30 p.m., and the licensed child care program, Monday - Friday.

New Center committee members present were: Elizabeth (Beth) Woodland Brooks, Virginia S. Draper Esq., Christine Hall, Dr. Flossie Demond, Del. Lena K. Lee, Bea Wright, Jerlys Bowie, Deborah Thomas.

FOSTER and KLEISER

"Sing it Outdoors" is singing a different tune now that Donnelly Outdoor Advertising has become Foster & Kleiser. Our new name may not be too familiar in Maryland, but we're now part of the largest outdoor advertising company in the country. As a division of Metromedia, Inc., Foster & Kleiser has been serving major metropolitan markets throughout the U.S.A. for 75 years and is the leader in outdoor communications. The words to the jingle may be different, but the message remains the same — as Foster & Kleiser, we'll work as hard as ever to do a good job for our community in advertising and public service.
