CHAP. CLXXXII.

An Act relative to the Lands of which James Busick, of Dorchester County, died seized intestate. Passed Mar 9, 1827

WHEREAS the petition of Levin Richardson, of Dorchester county, sheweth, that sometime in the year eighteen hundred and twenty-three, a certain James Busick, of the said county, died intestate, seized and possessed of certain real estate, leaving the following children, his heirs at law, viz. Elizabeth, who intermarried with your petitioner, Mary who intermarried with Hiram W. Woolford, Henrietta, who intermarried with Zachariah Linthicum, and James, Levin, and Rose Ann Busick, who are minors; and that in the year eighteen hundred and twenty-four, your petitioner obtained from the judges of Dorchester county court a commission to value and divide the said real estate between the said children and heirs at law; and that the commissioners on said real estate did determine, and return to the said court, that the said real estate would not admit of a di-
