The Kappa Phi Lambda Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity conferred the following honors on students and a faculty member:

The Alpha Scholarship for Academic Excellence was received by Michael Ward, a senior at Wilde Lake High School, who had a cumulative grade point average of 3.7. Kimberleigh Burroughs of Oakland Mills and Kimberly Kelly of Howard High received the Alpha Scholarship for Outstanding Achievement in a Performing and Visual Art. The latter awards were for $250 each whereas the Alpha Scholarship for Academic Excellence was for $500.

Additional Special Recognition Awards given in the name of the seven founders of the fraternity were conferred on the following:

Kimberly Kelly of Howard High School received the Henry Arthur Callis Cup for Outstanding Character as displayed in all phases of school life.

Karen Ferguson of Oakland Mills High received the George Biddle Kelley Award for demonstrating exceptional service to humanity under adverse circumstances exemplifying the fraternity's motto of: First of All, Servants of All, We Shall Transcend All.

Grayson Webb of Wilde Lake High received the Charles Henry Chapman Award. This is awarded annually to a student who has shown outstanding qualities of leadership and school spirit.

Sophomore, Sherman Ragland II of Howard High received the Nathaniel Allison Murray Award given annually to a student who by personal qualities brought distinction to his community.

Sherri Barnum of Oakland Mills High received the Eugene Kinckle Jones Award for outstanding achievement in the field of sports.

Jennifer Whitfield also of Oakland Mills High received the Robert Harold Ogle Award given to the student who best combines proficiency in athletics with scholarship.

Ms. Sadie Lonesome, a teacher at Howard High School, received the Vertner Woodson Tandy Award which was given to the faculty member whose teaching, guidance and overall assistance inspires students to make a contribution to the Afro-American and Pan African communities.

My best sincere appreciation to the many fine people, especially the Miss Talented Teen sponsors who helped to make the 8th annual pageant a success.

The pageant was held June 11 at the downtown Holiday Inn. Special thanks to Provident Hospital's Miss Y. Wilder inchargeof authorization, for her thoughtfulness toward the teens for allowing us the opportunity to use the auditorium for rehearsals.

Oop's! There was a mistake in the Miss Teen Pageant Program. Correction: Mike Brown is not the owner of Neighborhood Cut Rite Store, the owner is Louis Britt.

The University of Maryland Center of Adult Education, College Park, Md., was the scene of those fabulous Columbia Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity men as they presented their third annual Black and White Ball recently.

The ladies glamourized the evening in long black and white gowns in see through, off shoulders, peasant styled, pencil loose fitted and bare shoulder gowns, and the latest in shawls. In spite of the beautiful summery white, black took preferce over it. The sensuous black is always number one in any woman's wardrobe.

The lively guests danced to the swinging music of "The Gentlemen of Soul" from the D.C. area. They kept the beautiful guests upon their feet most of the evening.

My good friend Mary C. Clayburn, popular Public Service director WWIN Radio, was among the ladies who had a natural ball. She was accompanied by musician Andrew Rock. They danced among others until the clock struck one.

Special accolades must go to William Allison Murray program chairprson and his committee. Bill saw that everything was in place, and it sure was.

The members and friends must never forget Johnny Mathews, polemarch of the chapter. He is a young, bright and dedicated man to his chapter and community.

He is a supplemental security income specialist at the Social Security Administration. Aside from his work in the fraternity, he is president of the Wilde Lake Interfaith Cooperation.

Under Mr. Mathews administration, the chapter was cited as Chapter of the Year by the Eastern Province Regional Council for their outstanding program for community service.

Thought for Today

"I expect to pass through life but once, if therefore, there be any kindness I can show, or any good thing I can do to any fellow being, let me do it now, and not defer or neglect it, as I shall not pass this way again."

William Penn

Porkecue entries sought

The call is out to Maryland's pork barbecuing wizards; now is the time to submit your favorite recipe and enter it in the annual "Maryland Porkecue" cookoff set for September 1st at the State Fair.

This year the contest will be held among the 10 finalists in the brand new livestock exhibition hall on the Timonium Fairgrounds.

Deadline for entries is July 29, but don't put off entering. The contest, featuring prizes up to $100 in cash, is open to any resident of Maryland. Entries, listing your recipe, your name and address should be submitted in writing to: Leo Kahl, 3821 Perry Hall Rd., Perry Hall, Md. 21128.

The prokecue is an annual event soaring in popularity which is sponsored by the Maryland Pork Producers Association with assistance from the Maryland Department of Agriculture's Division of Marketing. It is designed to demonstrate the versatility of today's leaner prok.

Contestants selected as finalists will be provided with fair passes and the use of a brand new electric barbecue for the cookoff. The two basic requirements would be contestants should bear in mind is that their recipe must include prok and take no longer than one hour cooking time.

Judges in the contest will be media personalities and food experts.

It was a day for the "Faithful Few" to give thanks. It was the day that members and friends accompanied by the pastor, the Rev. Charles Franklin entered the doors of the Ray of Hope Baptist Church. On this recent occasion, we felt a sense of thankfulness for the blessing that had been granted the Ray of Hope family. We were especially impressed with the words spoken that Sunday morning by Trustee, James Delaney when he stated that the Ray of Hope "grew and prospered because the church was feeding and thriving on the rich soil of faith. /Faith of those who totally committed themselves, not only vocally but financially."

In his remarks, he encouraged the small faithful group to take their rightful place at the head of the line; and to be "proud of the work that they have done." It was a befitting tribute because the "faithful" few are too often and too soon forgotten.

Mr. Delaney is a section supervisor at the Social Security Administration.

ECONOMY CORNER

GOOD PRODUCTS LOWEST PRICES

A&P announces Economy Corner... where good products and lowest prices come together!

Economy Corner is a special section of unbranded Economy Products priced as much as 30% below national brands for sale at A&P.

Now, you can save a lot on the items you use a lot! Economy Products give you real economy choices on the products you use most. You'll find a limited selection from sweet peas to green beans to paper towels, packaged with plain black & white labels with no brand name and sold in their own special section.

And A&P's money back guarantee stands behind every product.

How can A&P do it?

These are the kinds of products you use everyday . . . all available at rock bottom prices. You'll notice some differences, for example, sweet peas are of mixed sizes, and the green beans come in non-uniform lengths. But, they offer good nutrition and value. And you'll find that our economy household products such as paper towels and detergents do get the job done.

A&P has always given shoppers a wide selection of famous national brands and A&P's own private label brands. Now, with the new Economy Corner products, A&P gives you another way to save!

Look for the special Economy Corner section at your A&P.
