407. ——— By the House of Delegates, | January 6, 1786. | Ordered, that the memorial of Henry Harford, Esq; and all | the proceedings thereon, be published in the Maryland Gazette and | Baltimore Journal, and that the printer strike two hundred copies of the | said proceedings for the use of the general assembly. | . . . [Annapolis: Printed by Frederick Green, 1786.]

Folio. Three leaves.
Pages: [1]-5.
Leaf measures: 13 x 7½ inches.

Henry Harford, late proprietor of Maryland, requested the state legislature to grant him retribution for the loss of his property and revenue in Maryland which he valued at £327441. The debate and votes on the question are given together with the conclusion that " . . . the senate were unanimously of opinion, that the memorialist cannot of right ask, or this state consistently with justice to others grant him, any compensation or retribution for the losses he states in his memorial to have been by him sustained in consequence of the revolution and acts of our legislature . . . "
