About lottery, liquor, curfew

By Arnetta Lottier

2000 Etting St. neighbors have been complaining about old furniture and junk piled up in their alley. They also want the city to remove the old cement and pipes left from when pipes bursted in the winter and repairmen never moved the mess they made.

Thanks to Clayton Tucker, Self Help Housing Director, the old furniture and junk will be removed by his department. Thanks also to George Parrish, Consumer Research Bureau, who told us he would have the workmen out there to clean up the cement they left.

Some folks have called asking questions about youngsters under 18 years old buying lottery tickets and buying whiskey.

Public Information Officer, State Lottery, Tom Sharzynshi, told the AFRO that notices go to the agents handling lottery tickets informin them no youth under 18 is to be sold a lottery ticket.

It is against the law, according to 88D, State Lottery, section 14. Any agent caught selling lottery tickets can be booked for a misdemeanor and fined a maximum of $2,500, three years in jail or both.

If agents are in doubt about age, they should ask for identification. Adults should not send their children to buy lottery tickets.

It is also against the law for youngsters under 18 to purchase whiskey or beer, according to Sgt. M. Rankin, Police department, Northwestern District. Persons selling to youth under 18 can be fined, get a jail sentence or both. Establishments selling liquors can also be closed as a fine.

Questions about the curfew where youngsters under 17 must be off the street by 11 p.m. Officer Rankin says when youngsters under 17 are stopped by police officers, they are sent home. A report is made each time a youth is stopped. If child is caught a number of times parents are notified.

If youngster is out with friends who are 18 or over, there is nothing anyone can do.

IN MEMORIAM

BOOTHE — In memory of my beloved husband and our loved one, CHARLES O. who passed away June 27, 1970:
Sunshine passes, shadows fall,
Love's remembrance outlasts all.
And though the years be many or few,
They are filled with remembrance,
Dear, of you.
Loving Wife,
GRACE and FAMILY

GREEN — In loving memory of my mother, ROSINA GREEN, who passed away June 30, 1953:
Sunshine passes and shadows fall,
Love's remembrance outlast all
And though the years be many or few
They are filled with remembrance,
Mother, of you.
Loving Daughter,
FLORINA GREENTERRY

LAWRENCE — In loving memory of EDWARD LAWRENCE, who passed June 29, 1977:
We can not say and we must not say,
That he is dead, he's just away.
Your death is so hard to understand,
Why you had to wander into an unknown land.
You left us an empty space in our hearts,
When from this world you had to depart,
We think of you still, as the same and say
"He is not dead, he is just away."
FAMILY and FRIENDS

MILLER — In loving memory of my dear mother, NETTIE W. MILLER, who passed away July 3, 1976:
God made lots of beautiful things:
Sunset and roses, and trees,
Birds, and starlight and loyal friends,
And after He made all these,
He gave to the earth a gift more rare,
More loving and more true,
Of all God's gifts, the one most rare—
A mother as dear as you.
Sadly Missed:
Devoted Daughter,
ERNESTINE WATKINS
and FAMILY
