

sub- / scriptions, advertisements, essays, articles of intelligence, &c. are thankfully received. [index] A letter box under the window. // [1797] folio. 50 cm. One folded sheet, 5 columns to the page, in each issue.

Issued daily, except Sunday.

Continues the City gazette & daily telegraphe. Evans 32912.

MHI. For other copies see Brigham.

397 The Tenets of Union discipline.
Baltimore? 1797.

Title from advertisement in the Federal gazette & Baltimore daily advertiser, which states, "On Sabbath, the 4th day of June, 1797, in the morning at 9 o'clock, and at 5 o'clock in the evening, there is preaching appointed by M. Jenkins, a Union minister, &c. There will also be a number of pamphlets distributed, entitled, 'The tenets of Union discipline,' and a small collection expected in the consideration of the expense of printing the same."

"Contains an introduction, 16 chapters, 15 questions and answers, an exhortation, the Union minister's journal, conclusion, and an account of the Union conclusion, and associations, &c." - the advertisement.

Not in Evans.

No copy located.

398 U. S. Treasury dept. Division of customs,
Duties payable by law, on all goods, wares & merchandise, imported in the United States of America, after the last day of June, 1797.
Baltimore: Printed by John Hayes, Public alley. 1797.

Title from advertisement in the Maryland journal of June 9, 1797, which states: "Just published. And for sale, by John Hayes, at his printing-office, Public-alley, adjoining Mr. Kent's tea-store, Baltimore-street. Duties, payable by law..."

"The whole compared and alphabetically arranged, so as to render the same useful and necessary for all merchants and others concerned in business" - the advertisement.