

4^o. 32 cm. 1 folded sheet, 3 columns to the page, in each number.

Issued triweekly.

Volume numbering irregular.

Evans 33365.

MdHi. For other copies see Brigham.

- 411 The Baltimore songster; or festive companion. A choice and approved collection of songs, interspersed with many originals, and the patriotic song of Hail Columbia! Second edition. Baltimore: Printed for Henry S. Keatinge, 1798.

Advertised among "New publications, Henry S. Keatinge's book and stationery store, no. 148 Balt street", in the Telegraphe of August 15, 1798.

Evans 33367.

No copy located.

- 412 Baptists. Maryland. Baltimore association. Minutes of the sixth meeting of the Baltimore association, Tuscarora valley, August 3, 1798. Frederick ? 1798.

Referred to by J. H. Jones, in his History of the Baltimore Baptist association, p. 6: "The circular for 98 was the reprint of the circular of the Warwick association for 1795, on the subject of reprobation." An examination of early nineteenth century minutes at the Crozer theological seminary shows that "circular letters" were printed with the minutes.

Not in Evans.

No copy located.

- 413 [triple rule] / ... / Bartgis's / Federal [U. S. arms] gazette, / or The / Frederick county weekly advertiser. / [rule] / Vol. VI. No. 295. Wednesday, January 3, 1798 [- Vol. VII. No. 346. Wednesday, December 26, 1798]... Printed every Wednesday, by Matthias Eartgis, at his English & German printing-office, the upper end of Market-street, Frederick-Town; / where subscriptions, advertisements, essays, articles of intelligence, &c. are thankfully received, and where printing & bookbinding in general are / executed with neatness and dispatch. [index] A letter box is