Coale & Thomas, publishers.

[General Catalogue. Baltimore, 1809]

In the Baltimore Federal Republican, Dec. 5, 1808, appeared a notice of the dissolution of partnership of Kid & Thomas on December 1st; Coale bought out Kid's share in the firm. "A complete Catalogue of the whole of their books is now printing, and will be finished in about two weeks." A "general Catalogue" is referred to in an advertisement in the Baltimore American, Dec. 20, 1808; and in the Baltimore North American, Jan. 12, 1809, it is advertised as "Coale and Thomes [sic] have this day Published A General Catalogue, Which may be had gratis."

No copy known. [722]
