What better way to keep cool on the hottest night of the year than to go to a Disco Splash Party. Anyway, that's the way it was when Owodunni's, Inc. sponsored theirs on the evening of July 22 at the Friendship International Hotel's huge pool.

Over a hundred jovial guests partied from 8 till 1 around the pool surrounded by flowers, dined on a cold buffet and cocktails. Guests also did the freaky-deaky to disco music done by members of the sponsoring club. Some dancers even hustled in the pool and everyone had the convenience of the hotel guest rooms for changing.

Guests enjoying this gala affair included groups of people from Social Security, Equitable Trust and that up and coming new club, About Faces, Inc.

Seen about were Lawrence and Barbara Irving, Venita Hawthorne, Thurmond Morris, Nancy Wilkens, James and Stella Richardson, Wilma Janey, Joyce Jordan, Jean Watkins, Arbia Baker, Leo Gross and Leslie Hicks.

Owodunni's, Inc. (that's African for making money) is an organization devoted to the upward mobility of blacks through determination to achieve, community involvement and investments. Members are Willie Roberts, Frank Murray, James Grimes and Myron Reed.

Looks like its really disco time in Baltimore.

Even the young set is getting in on the act. This was evident on Saturday when that swinging club, The Gatsby, sponsored a Kiddie Disco for approximately fifty youngsters, ranging in age from 5-12.

The kids dined on hamburgers, potato chips and pretzels, wined on sodas and boogied down to the music (in nights and all) engineered by D. J. Dave Richardson, Gatsby owner.

Six of the children attending celebrated their birthdays and were given a huge cake with their names on top. Highlight of the three to seven affair was a modern dance performed to the song, Runaway Love by Buffy Mitchell, Denise DeHoney, Susan Carter, and Kimberly Tibbs. Some other members of the young set attending were Kvia White, Ryan Sutton and Donnie Whitfield. Parents enjoying the action from the sidelines were Happy Mitchell, Diane Murray, Shelley Sutton, Calvin White, Edie Roundtree, Sandy Baxter, Minnie Carter, Flora Mitchell and Kvia Hawkins. Right on kids! Disco is in for everyone.

Miss Showell first black woman graduate

Miss Carolyn D. Showell was the only black woman to graduate from Union Theological Seminary in New York City on May 19. Miss Showell is a 1970 graduate of Western Senior High and a 1974 graduate of Goucher College. There she received a B.A. in Psychology and Religion.

While in New York, she had the privelege of studying at Columbia University, the Norman Vincent Peale Instituteior Mental Health and Religion, the Post - Graduate School of Mental Health and Religion, St. Luke's Hospital, and the Psychiatic Ward of Bellevue Hospital Center.

Miss Showell's area of concentration for her master's degree was psychiatry and Religion.

When asked what were her future intentions, she replied, "Many are many. I intend to get my Master's Thesis published, continue preparation for my private practice as a Christian Psychotherapist, teach Depth Psychology and Theology' at a black college, and begin doctoral studies at Howard University in the field of Black Developmental Psychology. Because of the importance of all of these endeavors, none holds precedence over the other. Therefore, I am working simultaneously towards the completion of all."

In New York, Miss Showell worked at the National Council of Churches, the Division of Professional Church Leadership. In this division she worked for the Commission on Women in Ministry. She was one of the organizers of the 1978, Consultation on Ethnic Women in Ministry which took place at the Four - H Center in Chevy Chase, Md.

Miss Showell is the daughter of Bishop and Mrs. W. A. Showell. Bishop Showell is the pastor of the First Apostolic Faith Institutional Church and a member of the Baltimore City Fire Board.

Woodlawn Highlights

By Marjorie Green

Sometimes it is difficult to appear at all of the interesting programs held in the Woodlawn Social Security headquarter building, but one that we couldn't afford to miss was the first "Accreditation Awards Ceremony" of the Security Toastmistress Club last Friday afternoon.

It was a dream come true for president, Brenda Washington & Security club members. After many months of hard-work, the Division of Personnel consented to grant proficiency certificates to all members who qualified in The Toastmistress accreditation courses any time in the last three discal years and all future qualifying members.

In November, 1977, members of the Security Club first attempted to convince the Division of Personnel that the stringent judging of speeches and achievement in oral communications required in Toastmistress Clubs was comparable to that of SSA's "Speaking and Briefing" course. Therefore, they asked that qualified Toastmistress club members be given proficiency certificates for theirac-complishments in speech preparation and delivery so that copies of the certificates could be placed in their personnel folders and on the personnel training tape.

According to Charles Bennett, Employee Development Specialist from the Division of Personnel, "The granting of this accreditation also opens the door for members of the other SSA Toastmistress and Toastmaster clubs."

Among the 18 awardees were Pauline Beasley, Mary Briley, Anna Christmas, Leatrice Curtis, Alma Dolin, Debbie Gerald, Pauline Gerst, Jane Harris, Lois Hunter, Maralyn Marske, Gwendolyn Reid, Sarah Scribner, Frazier Smith, Jacqueline Taliaferro, Shirleen Turner, Brenda Washington, Genevieve Wilson and Shriley Thornton, a past president who presided over the program referred to by Verna Day, the guest speaker as a "Milestone In History."

Baby showers and birthday parties add to the lunchtime excitement on the third floor of the Operations building. Ms. Carolyn Rhodes, supervisor in the Division of Adjustment Operations was the birthday honoree last Friday afternoon. The 21 men and women under her supervision and other supervisors in the area presented her with a beautiful money corsage. She started as a clerk typist in the same division 8 years ago. A native Baltimoreon, Carolyn attended Douglas High and Cortez Peters Business School. She is a member of the Social Security Supervisors Association.

Mrs. Ernestine Harrison, another supervisor coordinated the birthday luncheon.

Mrs. Caroline Rudolph was honored at a baby shower last Thursday. Her first addition to the Rudolph family is expected to arrive in August.

Next week, Mrs. Veda Parker will be the honoree at a baby shower. Best wishes to "Early Out" retirees Lagretta Patterson and Olivia Weems.

In addition to the GS - 12 and above early retirement approval, the Civis Service Commission has approved SSA's request to allow headquarters employees at grades GS - 11 and below to choose early retirement if they are age 50 with 20 years or more of service or have 25 years of service regardless of age. Headquarter employees in Baltimore and Washington, D.C. have until November 30, 1978 to elect early - out retirment.

SSA asked for early retirement to cover employees in GS - 11 and below as a means of helping to alleviate some of the situations cause dby classification review and reorganization activities that are taking place within SSA.
