

P. Forney, Mary C. Friedline, Amy D. Gavett, Lillie Hornsby, Anne K. Izard, Gordenna D. Jolley, Olney E. Kehn, Grace F. Knowles, Mabel W. Mayer, Sophie D. Moore, Mildred H. Ritchie, Marie E. Rodewald, Elizabeth H. Ruppert, Henry J. Schroeder, Blanche V. Shoaf, Kennon Smith, Jr., Maude E. Sutton, Guy Weatherly, Jessie P. Williams.

On May 27, 1958, the following members of the winter class in Archival Administration at The American University came to the Hall of Records: Edward E. Hill, Harry W. John, Elizabeth S. Lane, Willard G. Olsen, James Paulauskis, Eli D. Potts, George S. Ulibarri.

The students of the Twelfth Annual Institute in the Preservation and Administration of Archives attended classes at the Hall of Records on June 27, 1958. Members of the class were as follows: A. R. Arias, Professor of History, St. John's High School, Shreveport, Louisiana; Cornelia A. Bates, of the Federal Reserve Board; Michael W. Beksha, Archivist, National Archives and Records Service; D. H. Bocking, archives work, University of Saskatchewan; Robert D. Brinker, English teacher, Washington, D. C.; F. N. Clapper, Chief, Registry and Archives, United Nations; Helen L. Davidson, Assistant Archivist, Eli Lilly and Company, Indianapolis, Indiana; Lewis K. Demand, Assistant Archivist of Wyoming; Carroll Hart, Assistant Archivist, Georgia Department of Archives and History; G. Mendoza, Director, National Library and Archives, Sucre, Bolivia; Debra Padilla, student, University of Venezuela; T. E. Sparrow, Archives Management, Commonwealth Bank of Australia; Bernard Weilbrenner, Archivist, Public Archives of Canada; Juliet Wolohan, Librarian, New York State Department of Education.

VISITS AND VISITORS

On July 24, 1957, the Georgia Archives Study Committee came to study our plant and methods of operation. This distinguished group was composed of Ben W. Fortson, Jr., Secretary of State; George B. Brooks, State Senator; C. L. Moss, State Senator; Robert G. Stephens, Jr., A. A. Fowler, Jr. and W. Mobley Howell, members of the Georgia House of Representatives. In addition, Leon de Valinger, Archivist of Delaware, and G. Philip Bauer, Assistant to the Director of Archival Management at The National Archives, and editor of The American Archivist, attended the conference. A luncheon was offered the group by the Honorable Claude B. Hellmann, Secretary of State of Maryland, and James P. Brock, Administrative Assistant.

The Technical Officer of the National Archives of India, Yashpal Kathalia, spent ten days, January 13-24, 1958, at the Hall of Records. He came to make a study of our repair techniques and to demonstrate certain methods in the same field developed by the Indian Archives. On January 16, the Archivist of Delaware brought his repair technician, Alberta C. Warren, and his microfilm technician, Ray Wilcutts to the Hall of Records for a demonstration by Mr. Kathalia of "cold lamination."