

became effective July 1, 1960. Subsequently (January 18, 1961) our "Stenographer, Hall of Records" became "Principal Stenographer" and, again, there was no change in salary scale.

Also on July 1, 1960, the two "Photographers" at the Record Centers (Program 3) were realistically reclassified as "Principal Clerks." A small salary increase was also granted.

Daisy Lee Jones, who became a Senior Clerk in the Annapolis Record Center August 5, 1959, resigned August 2, 1960, as she was expecting a child. She was succeeded the next day by Martha Lee McCarthy, who subsequently married and became Martha L. Hardesty. John W. Rousseau, appointed to the position of Principal Clerk in the Baltimore Record Center January 20, 1960, resigned September 13, 1960. James F. Stymiest was promoted, September 14, from Senior Clerk to Principal Clerk and the vacancy caused by his promotion was filled September 28 by Alvin Meyer.

All of us who had been in the State service for as much as five years benefited from the new sixth annual increment of 5% which had been provided by the General Assembly.
