LIBRARY

During the past year, we added 158 titles to our library. This figure represents a new high in acquisitions in recent years, and surpasses the next highest year (1962-1963) by about twenty titles.

As has been customary, we received our new additions through the usual sources of gift, purchase, exchange, subscription and deposit. By far, the majority of our accessions came by way of gifts. Noteworthy in this category are the donations by Oden Bowie in memory of his grandfather Governor Oden Bowie and by James McAllister, who
