

Acquisitions''); Susan Gump took over the map collection and reindexed the whole lot, she also took over the vertical file. Patricia Vanorny examined and checked the gift collection, Frank White had to re-establish his file of State Documents because of the new materials which came from the Land Office; Gilbert Roberts was put in charge of the Naturalization Records which only came this year and it was his duty, along with that of Mr. Skordas, to take care of the records of the Constitutional Convention. Without the fine cooperation of our research staff, underpaid as they are, none of this work could have been accomplished. Judith Eucare and Barbara Lambden saw to the typing and billing, which was much greater this year than ever before, and Mrs. Eucare also took care of the billing, wrapping and miscellaneous correspondence implicit in the sale of over one thousand volumes of our publications. For all of this and more, I am grateful to all of them.
