

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the above and the promises hereinafter expressed, the parties mutually agree as follows:

I. PERFORMANCE BY THE LIBRARY

A. The Library agrees to deposit with the Hall of Records those items identified on the attached Schedule for an indefinite period of time beginning thirty (30) days after execution of this agreement.

B. Preparation of the materials for delivery and delivery of the materials to the Hall of Records will be conducted by the Library, and all costs related to said preparation and delivery will be borne by the Library.

C. Subject to the provisions of Paragraph III.A., below, the Library reserves the right to recall any or all of the items deposited by giving the Hall of Records ninety (90) days notice to this effect. All costs of preparing and returning the materials to the Library will be borne by the Library.

II. PERFORMANCE BY THE HALL OF RECORDS

A. The Hall of Records agrees to receive and hold the items deposited by the Library under the same conditions of security that obtain for other historically valuable records in the Hall of Records, including:

1. No prolonged exposure to light;
2. Archivaly acceptable conditions of temperature and humidity; and
3. Closely supervised conditions of reference use.

B. With respect to the use made of the materials while in the possession of the Hall of Records, the Hall of Records agrees to:

1. Pursue no preservation or restoration work on these materials without the express written permission of the Library;
