A resolution, with its preamble, authorising a grant to the heirs of Robert Chesley, late of Saint Mary's county, of a certain quantity of vacant land, lying to the westward of Fort Cumberland, in Allegany county.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it appears to this General Assembly, that Robert Chesley, a captain in the Maryland line of the revolutionary war, late of Saint Mary's county, was entitled, under the acts relative to the grant of military bounty lands to the westward of Fort Cumberland, to four lots, or two hundred acres of said land; and whereas it appears that the said Robert Chesley has never received his proportion of said bounty lands, and that the lots surveyed for that purpose, under the resolution of seventeen hundred and eighty seven, have either been distributed amongst the officers and soldiers, or have been thrown into the common mass of vacant land in Allegany county; and also, that the said Chesley is since dead, leaving heirs at law:
