Black Hebrews waiting for 'Second Coming'

SOUTH HAVEN, Mich. — A retired barber runs a secretive Religious commune in rural Allegan County for Black Jews from Chicago who are awaiting the "second coming."

William Lewis, self - proclaimed prophet of the Black Hebrew Israelite Settlement, says his followers are non - violent adherents to "the laws and commandments of God."

He ridicules the teachings of each Black Nationalist, Malcolm X and Martin Luther King, preaches against abortion as a shameful practice and advocates public hangings -for rapists and stickup artists.

"God has made it clear . . . that the so - called negroes will not be right until he makes his second coming and gives us a clean tongue and a clean spirit," Lewis said in an interview with the South Haven Tribune. "Then we're going to be somebody."

The settlement, known as Camp Judah, is in a wooded area of Lee Township, cordoned off by chains and guarded by members of the community. Lewis will not say how many people live there but as many as 30 trailers can be seen on the property.

Many of the residents work in South Haven but they refuse to as much as shake hands with outsiders.

Lewis, who quotes from the King James' version of the Old Testament, is a retired barber and has 24½ years of seniority with the Peoples Gas, Light and Coke Co. of Chicago.

He said he set up the community three years ago for Black Jews from Chicago who have been persecuted, spied upon and misunderstood and says his followers are "just trying to live . . . and follow the laws and commandments of God.

"I wish more of your people (whites) would come out and see what were doing here," he said. "The race, color, has nothing to do with it. I am concerned about right."

Lewis says he is a prophet — perhaps the only one in
