

CHAPTER 361.

AN ACT to repeal Section 275 of Article ten of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Dorchester County," sub-titled "Roads," and to re-enact the same with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section 275 of article ten of the Code of Public Local Laws, titled "Dorchester County," sub-titled "Roads," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows: Repeal.

SEC. 275. Be it enacted, That the supervisor shall perform all the duties required of him in the repairing the roads, and use all means at his command to place said public roads in the best possible condition for the convenience of travelers and persons passing over them with teams, the work thereon to be done between the first day of April and the first day of September in each and every year, except such work as shall be required to keep the bridges in repair and holes filled up, and for such service the said supervisor shall be entitled to a compensation of one dollar and twenty-five cents for each day he is actually employed at such work; provided, however, that the number of days for which the said supervisor, in each of the several respective districts, shall be entitled to such compensation, is left to the discretion of County Commissioners; the said supervisors under this article to hold office for the term of one year, commencing on the first day of January, and ending on the thirty-first day of December in each and every year, or until their successors are duly appointed and qualified; provided, that the County Commissioners may at any time remove said supervisor and appoint another to fill the vacancy, when in their judgment it is to the interest of the county that he shall be so removed. Duties of road supervisor.
Compensation.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.

Approved April 6th, 1894.