

of twenty-five hundred dollars; which sum shall be in full for all claims of said sheriff against Carroll county or said County Commissioners for his care, labor, responsibility and expense in discharging the duties of his office, including the keeping safely in jail of the prisoners committed to his custody, and the cooking and serving to said prisoners of the provisions furnished for them by the County Commissioners, as hereinafter provided, and necessary washing for said prisoners and keeping the jail in a clean and tidy condition; and the County Commissioners shall not pay said sheriff for any service he may render in the discharge of his official duties any further or other compensation, and shall not be in any way liable for any fees now or which may hereafter be allowed said sheriff by law, or for any further or other compensation than as above provided, for the discharge of his official duties, except as follows: For every execution of the sentence of death by said sheriff upon any person convicted of a capital offence, they shall pay him the sum of three hundred dollars; for carrying and conveying each person under sentence to any State institution, or to or from any of the jails of any of the counties of the State, or the jails or station houses of the city of Baltimore, or to or from any other place of confinement beyond the limits of Carroll county, under the sentence or final order of any authorized judicial authority, they shall pay him the sum of fifteen dollars for one person so carried and conveyed, and for each additional person so carried and conveyed at the same time, ten dollars, and said compensation, so specified, shall be held to include all expenses incident to the carrying and conveying of such person or persons; provided, that as far as is practicable, the said sheriff shall convey, and shall be held and required to convey to each of said institutions or other places of confinement, at one time, all persons in his custody at such time, under sentence to be so conveyed and confined in said institution or other places of confinement; and for any prisoners in his custody sentenced to hard labor within Carroll county, under any existing law or any law that may hereafter be enacted, the County Commissioners shall pay said sheriff for the control of said prisoners during the continuance of said hard labor and the supervision of the work done by them, such fees or compensation as may be prescribed for such control of said prisoners, and supervision of their work, by the law or laws under which said prisoners shall have been sentenced; nothing in this section is, however, to be so construed as to authorize the payment of any sum by the County Commissioners to said sheriff for the board or maintenance of said

Fees of
sheriff.