

No. 2.

Joint resolution authorizing the comptroller of treasury to strike from the books of his office certain worthless and uncollectable accounts, and to discontinue the further publication of the same in annual report of the comptroller of treasury.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it appears from table number seventeen of the comptroller's report for the fiscal year ended September thirtieth, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, that the following items still stand charged upon the books of his office, and that the same are published from year to year in the comptroller's report, to wit: George W. Hoover, late register of wills, Allegany county, $1,293.41; Leander Warren, late notary public, Baltimore city, $213.06; Lewis Sutton, late notary public, Baltimore city, $6,030; L. G. Norwood, late clerk court common pleas, Baltimore city, $5,350; W. J. Hamill, late clerk court common pleas, Baltimore city, $2,163; Nathaniel Hickman, late register of wills, Baltimore city, $7,438.18; T. H. Gardner, late clerk criminal court, Baltimore city, $2,499; Richard France, late lottery contractor, Baltimore city, $12,750. And, whereas, the state's attorney for Baltimore city recommends that the same be stricken from the books of the comptroller as worthless and uncollectable; therefore—

Strike out certain items from books.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the comptroller be and he is hereby authorized to strike said items from the books of his office, and to discontinue the further publication of the same in his annual report.
