

hundred dollars, or to be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than thirty nor more than ninety days, and the license of such person may be suppressed in the discretion of the court.

420. No vendor of spirituous or fermented liquors licensed under this Act shall sell directly or indirectly, any spirituous or fermented liquors to any person known to him to be intoxicated at the time, nor shall it be lawful for any such licensed vendor to keep open the room where spirituous or fermented liquors are sold between the hours of twelve o'clock at night and six o'clock in the morning, nor to sell directly or indirectly, or give away in such room or on or about the premises of such vendor any spirituous or fermented liquors whatsoever between the hours aforesaid.

421. Any person violating any of the provisions of the preceding section shall, upon indictment and conviction thereof, be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days.

422. Any vendor of spirituous or fermented liquors sold in Cecil county shall be liable to pay damages to any husband, wife, parents, child, employe or other person, injured by reason of any person being intoxicated by liquors sold by said vendor in violation of any of the provisions of this Act, to be recovered in the same manner as debts are now recovered by law.

422 A. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to sales by the manufacturer of cider in quantities not less than a quart, which is not drunk on the premises of the manufacturers, nor to sales of spirituous or fermented liquors by the manufacturer thereof to any person licensed to sell spirituous or fermented liquors in Cecil county.

423. Nothing in the preceding sections shall be construed to authorize any sale or barter, or the giving away of any spirituous or fermented liquors on the "Sabbath day, commonly called Sunday," or on the day of any election held in said county under the constitution and laws of the State or of the United States.

424. In any prosecution under this Act it shall only be necessary to state that the traverser did sell or give away spirituous or fermented liquor, without specifying the particular kind of liquor given away.

425. One-half of all fines imposed under this Act shall be paid to the County Commissioners of said county for the use of said county.

Unlawful to sell to an intoxicated person.

Penalty.

Liable to pay damages.

Not to apply to sales less than a quart.

How construed.

What to state.

Disposal of fines.