

the words "Voter's name" with a line drawn thereunder for writing said name, and under the same line the words "Number of Voter," followed by a blank space for the insertion of number. Before distribution said ballots shall be so folded in marked creases that no part of the marks or printing thereon, excepting that upon the back and outside, and that upon the detachable stub or coupon shall be visible, and so that the folded ballot shall be of uniform width and length and of proper width to be deposited in the ballot boxes; all ballots when printed shall be folded as above provided, and fastened together in convenient numbers in packages, books or blocks, so that each ballot may be detached and removed separately.

122. At least thirty days before every State election the Attorney General shall prepare full instructions for the guidance of voters of such election, as to obtaining ballots, as to the manner of marking them, and as to obtaining new ballots, in place of those accidentally destroyed, with such other instructions as shall, in his opinion be necessary and proper; said instructions shall be furnished by the Secretary of State to the several Boards of Supervisors of Election, who shall respectively cause the same to be printed in large clear type, on separate cards, to be called "Cards of Instruction," and said Boards of Supervisors shall furnish twelve of the same with ballots for use in each election precinct, on the morning of said election; the said Supervisors of Election shall cause to be conspicuously posted in each polling place said cards of instructions, and one of said cards of instruction shall be fixed in each booth or voting compartment; not less than three of said cards shall be posted outside of the guardrails, and not less than three of each of same shall be securely and conspicuously posted on the outside of the building in which the polls are held before the balloting begins, in such positions that the same may be easily examined by the public; it shall also be the duty of the several Boards of Supervisors of Elections, on the morning of said election, to cause to be conspicuously posted in each polling place and in each voting booth of each polling place, separate tickets or lists containing the names of the candidates of each political party, with a designation of the several offices for which they are candidates, so that voters may thereby be aided in selecting the candidates for whom they wish to vote and in marking the official ballot accordingly.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall not apply to Baltimore city, Baltimore, Wicomico, Carroll, Washington, Allegany, Cecil, Montgomery, Howard, Caroline, Harford, Frederick and Garrett counties.
