CHAPTER 340.

AN ACT to incorporate the Castleman River Coal and Coke Company, of Garrett county, Maryland.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William M. Hall and Harry J. Graham, of the city of Pittsburgh, in the State of Pennsylvania; Chauncey E. Ellithorp and Thomas J. Johnson, of Garrett county, and Roderic Clary and William A. Morgart, of Allegany county, in the State of Maryland, and their associates and their successors, and all such other persons as shall hereafter become stockholders in the company hereby incorporated, shall be and they are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate by the name of The Castleman River Coal and Coke Company of Garrett County, Maryland, and by that name shall have perpetual succession, and be capable in law to acquire and hold either by purchase, lease or otherwise, coal lands, and coal mines, and operate the same for the purposes of mining, producing, dealing in, transporting, buying and selling coal; for the purpose of manufacturing, producing, dealing in, transporting, buying and selling coke; for the purpose of conducting, owning, operating and maintaining railroads, tramways and cars within the limits of Garrett county, which may be necessary and convenient for the conduct of its business, and generally for the purpose of doing all things that are legitimate and proper for any coal and coke company to do under the laws of the State of Maryland; to acquire and hold any real estate and personal property which may be necessary for the conduct of its business; provided, however, that the said
