

proper and necessary. If any person, having been notified, shall fail to comply with the said notice, he shall, after the expiration of thirty days from the date of said notice, forfeit and pay a fine of one hundred dollars for non-compliance therewith, and twenty-five dollars per day for each and every day thereafter that he shall refuse to make such improvements, as prescribed in the notice so given, said fines to be collected as other fines are collected by law; provided, however, that the person so ordered to make improvements to his property as aforesaid shall have the right to appeal in writing to the County Commissioners of Baltimore county, from such order of the building inspector, and to adduce evidence and be heard thereon; but the right to such appeal shall be considered waived unless the same be taken within fifteen days from the service of such notice. It shall be the duty of the School Commissioners of Baltimore county to comply with all the building regulations adopted by the County Commissioners for the districts embraced within the provisions of this Act; and it shall further be the duty of the said School Commissioners to provide suitable fire escapes for all school buildings heretofore erected and now in use in the whole of Baltimore county where said buildings are more than one story in height, and also to provide suitable fire escapes for all said buildings now in course of construction or hereafter to be erected; and in the event of the failure of said School Commissioners to comply with the provisions of this Act, the County Commissioners shall have the power to contract for the doing of such work and shall deduct the cost thereof from the amount levied for the support of schools of the county.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the inspectors of buildings to enforce the execution of all existing or hereafter enacted buildings rules or regulations relating to the construction, alteration and removal of buildings or other structures, walls or parts of buildings or other structures.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for owners or lessess of any public hall, church, school or place of amusement in said election districts of Baltimore county to obstruct or allow to be obstructed by others, any of the aisles or passage ways in the auditorium of said halls, churches or places of amusement by placing therein any benches, chairs or stools, or other articles that may prevent free ingress and egress during the hours that said places may be open to the public. Said owners or lessees, or their agents, are required to keep unlocked and unobstructed at all hours during the time said halls, churches, schools or places of amusements are open to the public, all doors giving ingress or egress, and no hin-
