

ARTICLE XII.

GARRETT COUNTY.

CHAPTER 6.

AN ACT for the further protection of pheasants, partridges or quail, woodcock, wild turkeys and rabbits in Garrett county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That no person, corporation or company shall at any time kill or expose for sale, transport, have in possession any pheasant, partridge or quail, woodcock, wild turkey and rabbit, after the same has been killed, for any purpose, except for consumption or food within Garrett county; nor kill, expose for sale, or have in possession any of the above named game, with the intention of sending or transporting or having the same sent or transported beyond the limits of said county; provided, that nothing herein shall prevent the barter or sale of such game for house consumption only, by residents of said county; provided also, that nothing herein shall prevent non-residents who have taken out license to hunt in said county from taking with them out of said county any of the above named game which they may have killed in said county.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of Garrett county, or before the Circuit Court of said county, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars and not more than one hundred dollars, for each offense, and stand committed to the county jail until the fine and costs are paid, or until released by due process of law, one-half of said fine to go to the informer or informers upon whose evidence the conviction is obtained.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect on the date of its passage.

Approved February 25, 1908.

CHAPTER 370.

AN ACT to authorize and empower the Board of County Commissioners of Garrett county to levy certain sums of money