—Mrs. Alice Q. Murphy

When her husband joined the staff of the Baltimore AFRO-AMERICAN, they returned to the Baltimore area. They lived in Catonsville for nearly 12 years before moving to Baltimore City.

Mrs. Murphy, a member of St. James Episcopal Church, was a member of the St. Veronica's Guild and a former member of the church's choir. She was to receive next month a plaque during the church's 156th observance commemorating the 50th anniversary of her holy confirmation.

She was a member of the AKA Sorority, The Pals Club, Do-Chi-Ki, a Washington, D.C. club, the High Nooners Club and the Pals Bowling League.

She served on the Board of Directors of the AFRO-AMERICAN Company in 1973 and 1974.

Survivors, in addition to her husband and father, include her daughter, Sharon M. Smith of Oakland, Calif.; her son, Daniel H. Murphy of Winston-Salem, N.C.; two granddaughters, Brett Nicole and Lynn Theresa Murphy; her sister, Mrs. Virginia Leighton of Chicago; daughter-in-law, Mrs. Bernadette Murphy of Winston-Salem; son-in-law, William Smith of Oakland, Calif.; brother-in-law, Judge George N. Leighton of Chicago and a number of other relatives and friends.

The family will receive friends Sunday, May 20, 1979, 7 to 8 p.m., at St. James Episcopal Church, Lafayette and Arlington Aves. Funeral services will be held at noon Monday, May 21, 1979 at the church. Burial will be in Arbutus Memorial Park. Nutter's Funeral Home is handling arrangements.

The family suggests that expressions of sympathy be in the form of contributions to the American Cancer Society in memory of Mrs. Murphy.

Albert Foster worked at Sparrows Point

Funeral services for Albert Leon Foster Sr. will be held May 19 at Pleasant Zion Baptist Church, 4317 North Point Blvd.

Mr. Foster, 52, of the 4800 block Bowland Ave., died May 14 at the infirmary at Sparrows Point plant following a heart attack.

For 18 years, he had been employed with Bethlehem Steel Company and formerly worked as a mechanic for the [illegible] Company and the Western Electric Corporation.

A graduate of the old Bragg High School in Sparrows Point, Mr. Foster was in the army during World War II. He was chairman of the administrative board and a former chairman of the trustee board of the Pleasant Zion Church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ernestine B. Foster; a son, Albert Leon Foster Jr.; one daughter, Miss Lori Ann Foster; one brother, Lloyd Foster and two grandchildren.

Benj. C. Taylor joins Marshall funeral staff

WASHINGTON

Benjamin C. Taylor, a graduate of Catonsville, Md. Community College of Mortuary Science, recently joined the staff at the Marshall's Funeral Home, Inc., 4217 Ninth St., N.W., as an assistant director and embalmer.

Taylor's experience in funeral service began when he was only 12 years old. In 1959, he started working for his father B. F. Taylor in the family - owned and operated funeral home.

Later in 1972, he went to work for the Johnson and Jenkins Funeral Home where he served for more than seven years.

BENJAMIN C. TAYLOR

He is a native Washingtonian and a graduate of the Spingarn High School. Upon graduation, he entered the Air Force and served for four years, primarily in England.

Upon discharge from the Air Force, he attended the Washington Technical Institute for two years then transferred to Catonsville Community College, with a major in mortuary science.

He is a member of Galbraith AME Zion Church, sings with the Young Adult Choir and is a member of the Bible Study Group.

He is single, enjoys sports, particularly playing basketball and tennis. He has served as coach for a women's basketball team. Other interests include record collecting and dancing.

A Veteran can use his GI home loan eligibility an unlimited number of times, provided he has no outstanding Veterans Administration guaranteed loan when he applies for a new one.

COMBAT ENGINEER

Spec. 4 Joseph [illegible] Holland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Holland, Bowie, Md., recently was assigned as a combat engineer with the 82d Engineer Battalion [illegible] Bamberg, Germany.

Gas shortage: real or hoax?

ORZINA KNIGHT — "No, I do not really believe the gas situation is real because of what happened in 1974 with the energy crisis then. The gas corporations want to increase price to a dollar or more. Once that happens, they can turn an even larger profit. It is very difficult to believe anything anymore. Frankly, I am a little disenchanted with the whole thing."

mass movement to combat this so-called gas crisis. Congress is playing tricks, corporations making money with the consumer getting stuck. But the consumer has the power to put a stop to all of this. If everybody stopped buying gas for three days, just imagine what would happen."

TONY MORRIS — "The situation is bad, but I do not think there is a shortage — it is an increase in demand, so they hold back on the production a little."

"Well, I do not own a car, so I am not really dealing with it. I know gas is high . . . my parents have a car and they are complaining."

VALLARA PEARSON — "First off, gas is much too high in price . . . . It makes no difference, car gas, gas to heat your house . . . it is all gas. I want to know really what is going to be done about the situation. No, I do not think a gas shortage exists . . . it is just about holding down those prices."

WAYNE CARTER — "I am not really sure about the situation, but I know that the Bible indicates a great many things that are happening. Jesus Christ has already pointed out the things that would happen, so it is a mere fulfillment of a prophecy . . . a compositic sign that these are the last days in this system of things. We are living in critical times that are hard to deal with."

BEVERLY FRANKLIN — "The gas shortage may not be for real . . . it could be, but I doubt it. But I know one thing, those long gas lines are for real! My mother stood at Crown's over two hours, and they used to stay open 24 hours.

Disco couple ambush linked to 2nd shooting

Ronald Jones, 24, is listed in critical condition at University Hospital, after being shot early Monday morning while driving through Druid Hill Park.

His 24 - year - old date Ms. Gwendolyn Geter, 24, of the 900 block Chelldon Rd., was also shot and is in satisfactory condition at Provident Hospital. The couple had left a discotheque shortly before the incident.

Police state the couple was riding north in Jones' 1977 red Cadillac when Ms. Geter saw the passenger side of the windshield cave in and Jones yelled, "Get down they are going to kill us."

Ms. Geter, who is being treated at Provident for wounds of the head and back told police she was then pushed to the floor of the car by Jones where she remained and another blast then came through the driver's side of the window and hit Jones in the face and chest.

Police report the car veered out of control and rolled to the bottom of an embankment. According to police, Jones and Geter were able to crawl out of the car and staggered back to Liberty Heights Avenue where they fell.

Investigating officers report there were no witnesses. However, police believe the shooting was drug - related and could be connected to another shooting incident that took place May 16 around 3:22 p.m. in the 2800 block Winchester St.

Police report two alleged drug dealers caused a car collision when they started shooting from moving cars. Mrs. Roberta Moses, 29, her daughter and Charles M. Dixon, were injured and taken to Lutheran Hospital for cuts and bruises when their Datsun was hit by one of the alleged drug dealers who was driving a blue Camaro.

Police said the driver of the Camaro was driving in the wrong direction on Poplar Grove Street and collided with occupants of the Datsun.

Agent David M. Saulsbury has been investigating narcotic cases and said the driver of the Camaro is a suspected lieutenant in a drug organization.

Witnesses told police the passenger in the Camaro and several gunmen in the yellow Cadillac were shooting at each other.
