This successful affair is the forerunner of the coming Soul Kingdom Palace. The palace is a disco club which the Robert Clay Productions Inc. plans to develop.

If you missed the first "World's Largest Dance," never fear. It will be returning to town, same place, same time on May 31. Come on and party! Don't be left out of the fun.

Mother's Day Reunion

On Sunday, May 13 (Mother's Day), Mrs. Alice McBride, of Sumter, S.C., was honored at her family's fifth annual family reunion. This affair was held at the O and O Villa Room in Edmondson Village from 3 to 7 p.m.

Some 150 family members and friends traveled from Sumter, S.C., Ohio, New York and Laurel, Md. to join with relatives and friends in Baltimore for the joyous occasion.

Mrs. McBride, widow of the late Charlie McBride (also originally of Sumter, S.C.) can be proud of the legacy she has left mankind. She is the mother of 13 children, (seven sons and five daughters), 68 grandchildren, 87 great-grandchildren and 21 great-great-grandchildren.

For Mrs. McBride and the family and guests there was a delicious buffet dinner, including roast beef, turkey, ham, collard greens, string beans, assorted salads and desserts. There was also tasty punch and cocktails.

During the festivities, D. C. Mulette, director of Mulette's Funeral Home in Sumter, S.C., offered prayers. A solo was done by Mrs. Richmond of Baltimore.

Musical entertainment was provided by King Curtis, a local disco disc jockey.

Mrs. McBride received many lovely gifts, including flowers, clothes and lots of money. She was thrilled that her family had chosen to honor her and thoroughly enjoyed the occasion.

Among the family and guests enjoying the affair with her were: the Rev. Linnard Wilson, of Pilgrim Christian Baptist Church here in Baltimore; Cleveland McBride, cousin and funeral director from Sumter, S.C.; Dorothy McBride, of Laurel, Md.; Lucille and Jeannette Williams, grandchildren from Queens, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. James McBride and Mr. and Mrs. Freddie McBride, children from Philadelphia; also Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Hodge, Mr. and Mrs. James Hodge and Ms. Carolyn Davis, children from Sumter, S.C.

Golden Anniversary

Recently, Thomas and Katherine Howell of the 2700 block of W. Baker St., celebrated their golden wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Howell repeated their marriage vows at a wedding ceremony before 100 relatives and friends at Greater Harvest Baptist Church, 1617 W. Saratoga St., where Mr. Howell is the chairman of the Deacon Board and Mrs. Howell is the church clerk.

The 50 years of this union has resulted in four generations of Howells, including five children, 13 grandchildren, 11 great-grandchildren and 2 great-great-grandchildren.

A beautiful original poem, written by Mrs. Mary Colbert, (daughter of the honoree), was dedicated to and recited for the Howells.

Travelling Party Goers

On Saturday, May 12, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice (Shirley) Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. John (Marlene) Mohamed of Baltimore motored to Chester County, Pa. for the Chester County Pan Hellenic Assembly's Spring Formal.

The scene for this lovely 8 p.m. until 2 a.m. affair was the posh Continental Inn near Lancaster, Pa.

The Robinsons and the Mohameds were special guests of Dr. and Mrs. Robert (Doris) Hanna. - Dr. Hanna and his wife live in Contesville, Pa. where he is a physician. (She's Mr. Robinson's sister).

Tattle Tales

What's this we hear about tennis pro Harvey Burns getting miffed at that downtown health spa and taking his racquet to posher pastures?

Local undertakers have nicknamed a very ambitious member of their profession "Mr. Cash and Carry." Seems like he is burying everything that doesn't move.

Elzie Street, the bail bondsman, and Biddy Wood, Sphinx Club Mr. Charm, did all right on the Ray Charles - Damita Jo concert they sponsored, we hear.

Our microphone in the cocktail clogged up just as that blonde news queen and the news "brother" got into a hot part of their luncheon discussion. My goodness, what was that all about?!?!

Is that school principal in Region 3 really so mean that kids are made to come in the side door and teachers are harassed for even blinking their lashes? And is their teachers' union really looking into it?

"Double Coupons" cost most shoppers more than they save because regular prices must be raised to pay the extra costs. That's why Pantry Pride stopped redeeming "double coupons" and went to Warehouse Pricing instead. And that's why you can still buy your whole order at Pantry Pride for less than you can at a store with "double coupons". Of course, it's O.K. with us if you want to redeem your coupons for double at another supermarket, as long as you buy the rest of your order at Pantry Pride. Then you'll really save. (Naturally, we still redeem all coupons at face value.)

These Prices Were Checked On May 7th At A Store Redeeming "Double Coupons". The List Of Items Checked Is Available In Our Stores.
