'Ain't Misbehavin' opens D.C. June 5

Ready to party are Ken Prymus, Ben Harney, Adriane Lenox, Teresa Bowers and Yvette Freeman in "Ain't Misbehavin," the musical based on Fats Waller's songs at the Warner Theatre in D.C. June 5.

The joint will be jumpin' at the Warner Theatre when the national company of "Ain't Misbehavin,' Broadway's 1978 Tony Award winner for Best Musical, begins performances on Tuesday, June 5 at 7:30 p.m.

Spreadin' rhythm around in the stompin,' struttin,' high hattin, tribute to Fats Waller will be Teresa Bowers, Yvette Freeman, Ben Harney, Adriane Lenox, and Ken Prymus.

Accompanied by conductor-pianist J. Leonard Oxley and a six piece onstage band, the five member ensemble performs over 30 show-stopping songs including energetic dance numbers like "The Joint is Jumpin,' " tendr love songs like "Two Sleepy People," and many more treasures from the Waller legacy like "Honeysuckle Rose," "Your Feet's Too Big," and "Keepin' Out of Mischief Now."

Collectively, the songs, all either composed, collaborated on, 'or else simply recorded by Thomas "Fats" Waller, create a living portrait of the great jazzman's wit and exuberance.

In "Ain't Misbehavin" an era is evoked onstage: Harlem in the 30s, the Gold Age of places like the Cotton Club, of rent parties, of stride piano players and that new beat—swing.

Originally performed at the Manhattan Theatre Club, AIN'T MISBEHAVIN' opened on Broadway at the Longacre Theatre on May 9, 1978, produced by Emanuel Azenberg, Dasha Epstein, the Shubert Organization, Jane Gaynor and Ron Dante. It received three Tony Awards, the New York Drama Critics Circle Award, the Outer Critics Circle Award, and the Drama Desk Award—all for Best Musical of the 1977-78 season. The original cast album on RCA was recently awarded a Grammy.

The original creators and designers of the Broadway production have put together the national company, which is playing in 12 major cities across the country over the next 18 months.

Freddie Cole here

Ethel Ayler and Arthur French in Steve Carter's moving drama of a West Indian family conflict "Nevis Mountain Dew" at Arena Stage's Kreeger Theatre in D.C. through June 3.

Freddie Cole and his trio return to the Maryland Inn's King of France Tavern for a one-week engagement, May 22-27.

Not surprisingly, Cole's career has been heavily affected by his brother, the late Nat King Cole. But jazz enthusiasts should come to the Inn expecting to hear living tunes, not a rendition of past hits.

Cole has fought the inevitable association with his brother throughout his musical career, but this piano and vocal repertoire is distinctly his own. As Red Reed says, "If the comparison must be made, it's only fair to say that Freddy is his own man. He has individuality, flair and presence, and if he sounds once removed from the old gilded Nat King Cole vocal chords, that's O.K. too."

Although Cole refers to himself as 'the Cole nobody knows,' his four albums, many television specials and yearly European tours mark him as an artist in his own right.

—Joy Cline, artist for the near future life also. How could anyone grow up in a home like the Cline's without such a influence?

His mother has been a leading citizen of Boulder, active as a recitalist and teacher for enough years to justify the reputation and respect she has earned. She is currently completing her dissertation on the subject of the country's major music competitions.

Her husband, an internationally respected figure in linquistics, died unexpectedly last year. A tragic loss to the family and his profession, while still a young man! But the values he and his wife instilled in their children remain.

I don't hold too much with the importance of genes in musical talent or in other areas of accomplishment. Genes mean nothing if the environment is not supportive and stimulating, and a few moments with the Clines can stimulte an ordinary soul beyond the point of endurance.

I first knew Joy as a an aspiring flutist. When I saw her some months back I was surprised by the literature she was grking on, which I thought was arrangments of piano music for the flute.

No, her interest in the piano has assumed primary importance, and she was now a pianist. Over night? It seemed so to me, but I know she had to spend many hours in daily keyboard practive to attain the level this repertoire demanded.

So this gracious, poised, modest and very relaxed young lady arrived at Morgan to perform a genuine recital of works by Bch, Haydn and Chopin. So simplified versions, mind you, but the real thing. And no easy extracts, but honest and serious literature.

Her Bach may become more subtly expressive once we've given her antoher decade or so to live with the music, and her Haydn and Chopin might change as she matures, but all the notes are under her fingers right now, and her expressive latitude is enormous.

No matter what kinds of obstacles remain in her path, Joy Cline is going to make it.

Dr. de Lerma is a professor of music at Morgan State University. He also hosts "Melodies, Notes and Lyrics" on WEAA - FM on gsundah at 11 a.m.

IN MEMORIAM

ALLEN — A Tribute of love to our loved one, CATHERINE ELIZABETH ALLEN, who passed to the Great Beyond, May 21, 1972:
There comes a time for all of us,
When we must say good - bye.
But faith and hope and love and trust,
Can never, never die.
Although the curtain falls at least,
Is this a time to grieve?
The future's fairer than the past,
If only we believe.
Devoted Mother,
RUTHE. ALLEN and Faithful Friend,
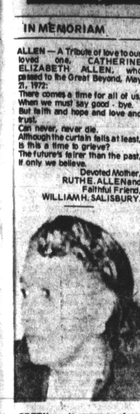
WILLIAM H. SALISBURY.



GREEN — In memory of our mother and wife, MRS. GOLDIE IANTHA (REESBY) GREEN, of the late Dr. Joshua Henry Green, founder of Metropolitan Baptist Church, who passed away May 17, 1970:
If I was hung on the highest hill,
I know whose love would follow me still! If I was drowned in the deepest sea,
I know whose tears would come down to me.
If I was darkned in body and soul,
I know whose prayers would make me whole.
Mother O'mine! Mother O'mine!
Your Sons, J. WEBSTER and J. SIMEON GREEN.

VANCE — A tribute of love to the memory of our beloved daughter and sister, SOROR - BEVERLY DABNEY VANCE, who died on May 18, 1978:
One year has passed since that sad day
When one we loved was called away.
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do as things the same.
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways.
Parents
EARL and O'REDA DABNEY
Sisters, CAROL BRENDA, JANICE and EARTHLEAN.

CARDS OF THANKS

JOHN ARTIS, SR.
Thanks to our relatives, friends, neighbors and Morrician William C. March for expressions of sympathy and assistance during our recent bereavement at the passing of our father and loved one. "We cannot, Lord, Thy purpose see.
But all is well that's done by Thee."
THE FAMILY.

CARTWRIGHT — The Family of the late ALICE B. CARTWRIGHT, wishes to thank you for your countless acts of kindness and sympathy shown during the loss of our beloved one. Your expressions of sympathy, cards, floral designs, visits, prayers and generous contributions helped to enlighten our bereaved hearts. Words cannot adequately express just how much your love, understanding and compassion has meant to us during this most difficult time. Again, we "Thank You." May God continue to bless each of you.
THE CARTWRIGHT FAMILY.

COLLINS CHASE
To those who expressed their sympathy in so many beautiful and practical ways during our recent bereavement, we extend our heartfelt thanks.
WIFE AND FAMILY.

THOMASINE HAYWARD
Words can not adequately express our deep appreciation for the many kind and sympathetic acts that came to us at the time of our recent bereavement.
THE FAMILY.

HENRY C. JOHNSON
We wish to express our appreciation for the many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy and condolence extended by our friends and neighbors during the recent death of our beloved husband and father.
Wife, CORDELIA N. JOHNSON and Daughter, CAROLE.

BIRTHDAY TRIBUTE

JONES — A Birthday tribute to the memory of my loving son, JAMES CHARLES JONES, on his birthday May 11, who passed away December 24, 1978:
Not sure to know the reason why
Answered is our prayer.
But ours to wait for God's own time to fill the cross we bear.
Not sure to know the reason why from loved ones we must part
But ours to live in faith and hope through bleeding to the heart
Not ours to know the reason why his anguish, strife, and pain
Sweet graces for us to gain
A cross is bleeding heart and Crown
Heat greater gifts are given?
Be still thy heart and murmur not
There are keys or Heaven.
LOVING MOTHER
