CHAPTER 52.

AN ACT to authorize the Vestry of Havre de Grace Parish, in Harford County, wherein is the only Protestant Episcopal Church of the City of Havre de Grace, to continue, or resume said name and to act thereunder, to define more particularly the corporate powers of the Vestry of said Parish, to enable the said Parish to hold, by said original name, all lands or property conveyed to it for the benefit of St. John's Church in said Parish by said name or by any other name, and to ratify and confirm all deeds or other conveyances made by said Vestry by other than its correct name.

WHEREAS, Under the Vestry Act of 1798, Chapter 24, the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Maryland in the year 1809 divided St. George's Parish in said county and set apart that part thereof lying in or near the town of Havre de Grace for the formation of a separate parish, and constituted the same a new parish by the name of Havre de Grace Parish, and, in pursuance of the authority so given,
