THURSDAY, JUNE 14, 1979
Crofton Woods Elementary School
1791 Urby Drive
Crofton, Maryland

The meeting at each location will commence at 7:30 p.m. and will be held in the school cafeteria.

Because of the wide public interest in the project, and in an attempt to solicit as much citizen input as possible, the workshop meetings will be conducted in three locations in the study area.

The project is currently in the Department's 1977 - 1981 Interstate Highway Work Schedule, with Project Planning, Preliminary Engineering and Right of Way scheduled through 1981. This meeting is one of the steps in meeting Federal and State requirements to progress the project in an expeditious manner to construction.

PURPOSE

The Project Planning Team will acquaint those in attendance with the alternates developed relative to the engineering, economic, social, and environmental considerations. The purpose of the planning study is to upgrade the existing facility to Interstate standards. Wall maps indicating the various alternates will be on display and the advantages and disadvantages of each will be described.

Beginning on June 4, 1979, brochures and displays will be available for public inspection during normal working hours at the following locations:

WHAT YOU CAN DO

All interested persons are invited to attend this meeting and express their views regarding the proposed location of the project and of possible alternates, including the social, economic and environmental effects. Citizens involvement in the preliminary planning process of the project will be solicited. A brochure, describing the alternates, will be mailed to all persons on the project mailing list. Others may receive a copy by writing Mr. Hal Kassoff at the address noted below. Brochures and formal written comments will also be available at the meeting.

CONTACT

Comments and recommendations will be noted and recorded during the course of the meeting. Written comments and/or requests to be included on the project mailing list may be submitted to Mr. Hal Kassoff, Director, Office of Planning and Preliminary Engineering, State Highway Administration, 300 West Preston Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21201.

HOUSING AUTHORITY OF BALTIMORE CITY
NOTICE OF LETTING

The Housing Authority of Baltimore City will receive sealed bids in duplicate for the rehabilitation of 1300 and 1308 Harwood Avenue VH 20-79 until 1:00 p.m., Eastern Daylight Saving Time, on June 13, 1979 in the office of the Chief of Finance and Accounting, Room 609, Sarabina Street Municipal Building, 222 East Saratoga Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21202, at which time and place all bids will be publicly opened and read.

Proposed forms of contract documents, Invitation Bids and Technical Specifications, are on file and may be examined and obtained by persons who have been prequalified by the Contractors Qualification Committee, City of Baltimore, or the Executive Director of the Housing Authority of Baltimore City. These contract documents are available at the office of the Director of Construction and Buildings Inspection, Room 730, Sarabina Street Municipal Building, 222 East Saratoga Street, Baltimore, Maryland.

Interested parties may obtain information concerning contract documents and procedures for prequalification from the Contractors Qualification Committee, Room 1002, Municipal Building, as well as from the Housing Authority of Baltimore City.

The successful prequalified bidder will be required to furnish satisfactory performance and payment bonds within ten (10) days after the date of the letter of notification of award of the contract.

Attention is called to the fact that payrolls must be filled with the Housing Authority and not less than the prevailing salaries and wages as set forth in the Specifications must be paid on this project. The contractor must insure that the employers and applicants for employment are not discriminated against because of their race, creed, color, religion, sex or national origin.

The successful bidder may be required to prepare and submit an Affirmative action Program regarding the employment of minority sub applicants. Details are set forth in the Contract Documents under 41 CFR 60-1.7 (a) Notice and Requirement for Affirmative Action to Ensure Equal Employment Opportunity (Executive Order 11246) and 41 CFR 60-1.3 (a) Standard Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Construction Contract Specifications (Executive Order 11246). In addition, prior to the submittal of a contract, he must submit a preliminary statement of work force needs, where known. Where not known, this information must be supplied prior to the voiding of any contract between the contractor and his subcontractors.

The Housing Authority of Baltimore City reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

No bid shall be withdrawn for a period of thirty (30) days subsequent to the opening of bids without the consent of the Housing Authority of Baltimore City.

Keep your baby alive... and healthy

Prepared by the D.C. Human Resources' Dept. Improved Pregnancy Outcome Project and the D.C. Office of Communications.

Q: One minute I feel really depressed. Then, the next minute I feel happy. Why do my moods change so much?

A: It's normal for pregnant women to experience changes in their moods. Your body is going through a big change and your mind is too. Hormones, chemicals in your blood which regulate many of your bodily functions, are increasing. Because of hormonal changes, pregnant women are likely to experience changes in their moods that they often don't understand. Also, you have taken on some new responsibilities — the responsibility of pregnancy, labor and delivery and the responsibility of parenthood. All of these new experiences are causing you to do a lot of thinking and feeling and adjusting. So, it's common to have emotional ups and downs. Sometimes you aren't even sure why you're feeling the way you are. You need a lot of emotional support and understanding from those around you. Sometimes they don't understand. That's why it's important for those around you to know of these real reasons for your changes in feelings, so they can give you the patience and understanding you need. Make sure there is someone you can talk to about your feelings. It might be your partner, or a friend, a sister, your mother or your doctor. Whoever it is, if they care, they'll listen. Also, you need to care for yourself by getting lots of rest. It's O.K. to pamper yourself. This is a special time for YOU! And, remember, all those feelings are normal.

Q: Why do I have such a heavy vaginal discharge?

A: During pregnancy, the skin tissue of the vagina becomes softer and more flexible. This is because your vagina is preparing for childbirth. During the nine months, it softens, so that it will be able to stretch during labor and delivery. As the lining becomes softer, more mucus is produced because of the high hormone level. Also, the cervix, the opening to the womb, is closed off by a plug of mucus. This barrier protects the baby, housed in the uterus (womb), from infections. When birth is near, pressure of the baby on this plug causes some of it to become loosened. This is not dangerous for the baby, but it does increase the amount of mucus in the vagina. Also, during pregnancy, a woman tends to get more vaginal infections. If your discharge has an odor, or if you sting, burn or itch, check with your doctor or nurse. If you have a gush of fluid from your vagina, or if you are continuously leaking fluid, let your doctor know immediately.

Q: If I breastfeed my baby, will my breast get all saggy?

A: Breastfeeding, itself, does not cause saggy breasts. Pregnancy causes your breasts to become heavier and fuller, again, due to the hormones which are preparing your breasts to produce milk. The key to preventing or minimizing the sagginess, that may be caused from this increased weight, is wear a well fitting, supporting bra. Soon after you give birth, your breasts may become fuller and even heavier as milk starts to be produced. Again, a firm, well fitting maternity bra, worn around the clock, is your best insurance against sagginess. Whether you breastfeed your baby or bottle feed your baby is your choice - a choice you will make based on what is best for you and your baby. But, remember, sagging breasts are not caused by breast feeding, but by poor support during pregnancy and the nursing period.

Her hot new book fuels fire on Thomas Jefferson

NEW YORK — The controversy over whether Thomas Jefferson fathered seven children by a beautiful slave named Sally Hemings has been reignited by Barbara Chase-Riboud's first novel, "Sally Hemings," pun'ished by the Viking Press.

A recent article about the book in The Washington Post said: "Several of Virginia's more prominent historians are rallying to protect the good name of Thomas Jefferson from a 177-year-old 'rumor' that refuses to die."

The way Chase-Riboud sees it, the "very idea that Sally Hemings was Jefferson's mistress for 38 years evokes violent passions and prejudices. ...No other public man has ever hidden so well the passions of his private life, not only his relationships with Sally Hemings, but also with his wife and his mother.

There is no doubt in my mind that the basic story of Sally Hemings is true. If you line up all the facts one after another, the evidence is strongly convincing."

Another surprise Chase-Riboud found in researching the book was "discovering the proposed anti-slavery clause to the Declaration of Independence." She says "it is a mystery why historians have virtually hidden from the American public one of the most important clauses of the document, as Jefferson originally wrote it. If the anti-slavery clause had not been excised by the Continental Congress, slavery would have ended in America in 1776."

She says that in "no way does Jefferson's romantic involvement with Sally detract from his grandeur or genius, or call in question his place in American history."

Chase-Riboud rejects criticism that she is tampering with history. It's really the other way around, she says: "Those who have excluded Sally Hemings and Jefferson's anti-slavery clause from historical accounts are the ones guilty of tampering with history."

A poet and sculptor of American and Canadian descent, Chase-Riboud lives in Paris with her husband and two sons. A graduate of Yale University, she has traveled widely in Asia and Africa. A John Hay Witney Fellow, and a National Endowment for the Arts recipient, her earlier books of poetry have been widely praised. A second novel is now in preparation.
