The second Sugar Hill Extravaganza was held May 20 at Blue Crest North from 8 p.m. until 1 a.m.

More than 500 guests attended and had a lovely time. Guests ranged in age from teenagers to great-grandparents. Everyone was busy exchanging warm greetings and expressing their gladness at seeing each other again.

Cocktails were served from 8 until 9 p.m. Afterwards there was a sit-down dinner of roast beef, baked potato, string beans and carrots, breads, ice cream and pie, with coffee and continuous open bar.

Music was provided by Chico Johnson, local musician, whose trio played music for dancing from 10 p.m. until 1 a.m.

All ladies in attendance who were over 80 years old were presented with corsages from the Sugar Hill Committee, which organized and planned the affair for this year as well as the first one, which was held last year.

Edward J. Peck Jr., chairman of the committee and emcee for the occasion, welcomed back people who attended last year and expressed greetings and thanks for those attending this year.

Guests came from as far away as California. Many came from New York.

The Sugar Hill Committee presented the Independent Hospital Development Fund with a check for $500. Mrs. Vashti Christmas, of the Executive Office of Provident, who represented Carroll H. Hynson Jr., director of Public Relations and Development at Provident, received the check.

In addition to Peck, committee chairman, other committee members are: Mrs. Bernice H. Burroughs, John Butler, assistant treasurer; Mrs. Thelma R. Leeds, Allen Martyn, Mrs. Ruth J. Perkins, secretary; Mrs. Dolores M. Spriggs, Mrs. Doris J. Street, recording secretary; Mrs. Shirley R. Tayler, business manager; Warren Tilley, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Umphery, advisor to the committee, and Mrs. Esther C. Waters, treasurer.

OLDEST MALE SUGAR HILL MEMBER — Edward Peck Sr., 83, the oldest male Sugar Hill resident, enjoys Sugar Hill Extravaganza activities.
