CHAPTER 210.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Sections 139, 140, 141 and 143 of Article 77 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland of 1904, title "Public Education," sub-title "Manual Training Schools in the Counties," designed to extend industrial work in the colored schools of such counties as receive appropriations for same.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 139, 140, 141 and 143 of Article 77 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland of 1904, title "Education," sub-title "Manual Training Schools in the Counties," be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted to read as follows:

139. It shall be the duty of Board of County School Commissioners of each county in this State, whenever a suitable building or room, or rooms, connected with one of the colored schools of said county shall be provided by the county, to accept the same, if, in the judgment of the Board of County School Commissioners, there is any necessity therefor, and thereafter to provide for the maintenance of such colored industrial school or schools where instruction shall be given daily in domestic science and such industrial arts as may be outlined by the County School Board, and a part of the appropriation—about one-half—to be hereinafter provided, shall be used for maintaining such a department or school.

140. Whenever any such colored industrial school is opened in any county the president and secretary of the Board of County School Commissioners of said county shall report the fact to the secretary of the State Board of Education, and the State Board of Education shall, without delay, proceed to appoint a proper person, well qualified for such inspection, to visit the said school and give a certificate of approval of its condition and the plan upon which it is conducted to the said State Board of Education on or before the tenth of September following the inspection; and said colored industrial school shall be inspected annually thereafter by the State Superintendent of Public Education, or by some person to be desig-
