COAL MINE OPERATORS, DEALERS IN COAL and COAL LANDS

Holdings for Development

BIRCH RIVER TRACT—Containing 2190 acres of valuable Coal and Timber Land.

These lands are located in the Southern part of Webster County, W. Va., in one of the richest coal fields in the state.

TRANSPORTATION—The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Branch running from Clarksburg to Richwood, W. Va., will furnish excellent transportation to the tidewater and export points. The Natural lay of these lands are favorable for development. The location of the first openings in Coal seams are less than 7000 feet from the railroad.

Mining experts and U. S. Geologists place the tonnage of coal in this tract at 92,000,000 tons. Millions of feet of saw timber will be mined from the virgin timber on these lands.

Information concerning an investment in the development of these Coal and Timber lands will be furnished on request.
