Miss Jones weds Mr. Williams

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Williams
(The former Ernestine Ann Jones)

United Baptist Church, inthe 900 block of Broadway, was the setting for recent wedding of Miss Ernestine Ada Jones and Matthew Williams.

The bride, daughter of William and Ada Jones and the goddaughter of Lester D. Parker Sr., was given in marriage by her father.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Mamie Williams and the late John Williams Sr.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. George E. Vanderford.

The bride's gown, a Paris original by Bianehi, featured a fitted neckline and bodice which flowed from the waist into an A-line shape. The fron panel of the skirt was encrusted with sequins and seed pearls. The headpiece was a hooded cape which was also edged in an intricate design of sequins and pearls.

Darlene D. Jones, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Shirley Dean was the matron of honor. Both wore malt colored gowns with matching hats.

The bridesmaids were Maryn Surling, Pamela Gill, Desimoane Murray, Airretta Jefferels, Barbara Davis, Betty Branch and Meizella TLaylor. Their gowns were melon and they wore baby's breath in thei hair.

Junior bridesmaids, dressed in coffee gowns and wearing baby's breath in their hair, were Tara Eley, Cheryl Mitchell, Cyrstal Jefferies and Phaedra Ells. Monica Taylor, goddaughter of the bride, was flower girl.

Elvin Conway, longtime friend and former classmate of the groom, was best man. He qore a beige full dress tuxedo.

Groomsemn were Collin Branch, Clarence Fuller, Darryl Jones, Nathaniel McCoy, Melvin McCoy, Bernard Young, Murius Murray and Richardo Jones They wore beige jackets with dark brown pants.

Paul Jones, fephew of the bride, served as ringbearer.

Soloists were Mrs. Patricia Cooke of Shiloh Christian Community Church, Ms. Terri Walker of Jones Tabernacle Baptist Church, Thomas R. Roberts, lead singer of the Gospel Leaders and a member of Gillis Memorial Community Church and Clifton Bennett, also of Gillis Memrial.

After the ceremony, the newlwed couple was escorted by the coordinator, Charles "Sonny" Ellis, to a vintage 1939 white - Rolls Royce chauffer - driven limosine, which led an entourage of Mercury Mark V's which were colore - keyed to the colors of the wedding party's atire, to the reception held at the St. Francis Xavier Hall.

A cold buffet, including chicken slad, cold cuts, macaroni salad, fresh fruit and ponch, was served at the reception.

The bride is asistant secretary of United Baptist Church and a data processor for the the state.

The bridegroom is an Air Force veteran and is employed ans an experimental assembler at Trinec in Columbia, Md.

The couple is residing on Wycliffe Avenue in Baltimore County.

Surprise party marks anniversary

When Dorothy Clinton walked into a downtown restaurant Monday evening with her husband, Dr. Shirley Clinton, and Bill and Mattie Mumby, she got the surprise of her life.

Seated in one of the intimate lounges and greeting her with "surprise" were family members and friends. Her hubby and the Mumbys had arranged things to makr their 30th wedding anniversary.

She received a huge orchid and diamond - studed watch. The children aided in arrangements. They are Stanley, 21, Lenssie, 18, and Shirene, 17, who finished Western High last week, (she is now enrolled at the University of Maryland at College Park, where the older children are also studying.)

Dr. Clinton's sisters, Inez and Connie, came from Philly. Another sister, Hazel Thompson from Camden, N.J. They had fun hiding in thier car until the honoree was safely inside the restaurant.

Joining in the surprise were Renee and Earl Clay, Gerri and Lionel Desbordes, Doris and Harry Cole, the Sam Billups and Paul Mosses and Ron Clinton.
