BROOKLANDVILLE, Md. — Miss Yvette Cherie Hairston was graduated with honors June 8 at the Commencement Mass and Exercises here at the Maryvale Preparatory School, an exclusive private Catholic school for girls.

The institution, grades seven through 12, is on a wooded tract of 183 acres originally owned by Charles Carroll of Carrollton and Saters Baptist Church built in 1742, the first Baptist church in Maryland.

The campus is dominated by a Tudor-style mansion built in 1916 by Dr. and Mrs. Walter Wikes in the style of Warwick Castle in Warwickshire, England. The state is now owned by the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur.

Students come from Northwest Baltimore, Roland Park and Homeland and from Towson, Lutherville, Timonium and Ruxton, Howard County and Greenspring Valley and some foreign countries and the level of academic achievement is high. The cultural offerings are varied and many.

Miss Hairston, one of five members of the National Honor Society, gave the welcome address.

His Eminence Lawrence Cardinal Shehan, in one of his reare appearances, gave the main address and presided at the Gospel reading and the Communion assisted by Rev. Stephen Gerard.

Miss Hairston is the second of the three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Hairston of Baltimore to be graduated from schools in the Maryvale area.

Her older sister, Miss Dorna Hairston, was graduated from St. Timothy's School in Stevenson, Md. in 1977 and is now studying nursing at Towson State College.

Mr. Hairston is a 23-year employee of Western Electric Co. The Hairston's third daughter, seven-year-old Tody attends a Middle School in Baltimore. Yvette will enter Notre Dame College in September to study law.

Among relatives and friends present at the ceremonies on the lawns of the Maryvale castle were Mrs. Eleanor D. Powell and Mrs. Bettye Graves, godmothers; Elaine Taylor, James and Michael McArthur, Mildred Caldwell, grandmother; Mesdames Leonora and Wilma Caldwell, Annette Gibson, aunts; Andrew and Shirley Parker, godparents; Rev. and Mrs. John O. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, Novella and Pamela DeLoatch, Mrs. Ethel Stewart and children, Roxanne, Liza and Christie Stewart and Anthony Yorkshire.

The Hairston family attends Arlington Baptist Church. Mr. Hairston teaches Christian Education at the Montrose School.

National job pressures day

The Communications Workers of America (CWA) have declared June 15 "National Job Pressures Day."

The decision was made at CWA's first national Women's Conference in Minneapolis last year in a resolution which called for a public demonstration of workers' feelings.

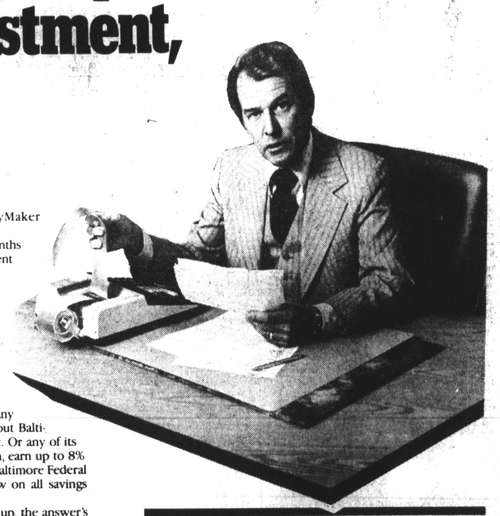
Baltimore Federal's Six-Month MoneyMaker Certificate... short term, high yield, absolute safety. As an investment, it really adds up.



Baltimore Federal's Six-Month MoneyMaker Certificate makes a lot of sense.

You invest $10,000 or more for only six months and earn an exceptional yield. It's a safe investment because there's no fluctuation of your investment principal, and accounts are insured up to $40,000 by an agency of the U.S. government.

If you have a six-month certificate at another financial institution you should check with Baltimore Federal before you renew. If you're considering investing in one for the first time, you should do it now. Either way, you're putting your money in a proven winner.

And the MoneyMaker is only one of many available savings and certificate plans. Check out Baltimore Federal's 5-1/4% regular savings account. Or any of its SelecTerm Certificates that, depending on term, earn up to 8% annually on an investment of $1,000 or more. Baltimore Federal pays the highest interest rates allowed by law on all savings accounts.

So, no matter how many ways you add it up, the answer's always the same — Baltimore Federal makes big things happen with your money!
