Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the time of its passage.

CHAPTER 262.

Passed March 10, 1862.

AN ACT to amend the sixteenth and seventeenth sections of the twenty-ninth Article of the Code of Public General Laws, relating to executions on judgments, and substitute the following in lieu thereof.

Amended.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the sixteenth and seventeenth sections of the twenty-ninth Article of the Code of Public General Laws, relating to executions on judgments, be amended so as to read as follows:

Judgments, executions, attachments, &c.

16. On all judgments an execution may issue, at any time within three years after the date of such judgment, or if there be a stay thereon, at any time within three years after the expiration or removal of such stay, where there has been no change of parties to such judgments, by death or by marriage, but executions by way of attachment may issue at any time within twelve years from the date of said judgment, and if more than three
