Ames Methodist Men honor Scouts

The Methodist Men of Ames Memorial United Methodist Church honored Cub and Boy Scouts of the year on June 10 at their church.

Major Leon B. Brown, president of the United Methodist Men, presented the Cub Scout of the year award to Kenneth White, who is a member of Ames Memorial and a student at Gilmor Elementary School.

White has been a member of Cub Scout Pack 521 for three years and has earned three badges, nine Arrow points and eight activity badges. He has also received the Arrow of Light, the highest award a Cub Scout can receive. Kenneth Lambson is the Cub Scout master.

The Boy Scout of the year award was presented to Edward Laws. He has been a Scout for five years and is a member of Alexandria Episcopal Church. Laws has served as an altar boy for five years and is very athletic.

The God who gave us life gave us liberty. Can the liberties of a nation be secure when we have removed a conviction that these liberties are the gift of God?

Peace is prayed for in all churches. Praying for peace, however, is not enough. We must also work for peace. Prayer must be backed up by good will.

Team focuses on families

The archbishop of Washington, William Cardinal Baum, has announced the formation of a special planning team to develop new programs of ministry to Christian families.

The new Archdiocesan Family Ministry Commission was installed on Saturday, at the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception.

The planning team is one of many in the United States this year who will meet to renew family ministry in the Catholic Church.

Dioceses throughout the nation are responding to the 1978 Bishops' meeting when a plan of pastoral action for family ministry was approved for the Church in the United States in order to bring more intense service to families at all stages of growth and all times of need.

There are six areas of concern: Pre - Married and Singles Married Couples, Parents, Developing Families, Hurting Families and Leadership Couples and Families.

The first task of the commission will be to plan for celebration of families and family life during 1980, designated as the Year - of - the - Family.

Members appointed to the commission are Dr. and Mrs. Andrew Favret, co-chairmen; Rev. Msgr. Raymond J. Boland, Sister Christopher, C. D. P., Larry Rilla, Mrs. Mary Rinkus, Thomas Matan, John Jemings, Mr. and Mrs. Artemio Martinez, Mrs. Jane Gude, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oettinger and Mrs. Kathleen Enrler.

Temple C. Allen Sr. worked for Domino

Funeral services for Temple Chester Allen Sr., were held June 23 at Morning Star Baptist Church.

Mr. Allen died June 18 at Provident Hospital. Born in Amissville, Va., Mr. Allen moved to Baltimore in 1927 and worked at Domino Sugar Refinery until he retired in 1967.

Mr. Allen has been a member of Morning Star Baptist for 52 years and served as a member and vice chairman of the Deacon Board for 35 years.

Mr. Allen was active in the Sunday School and loved his church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Edith M. Allen, two sons, Temple C. Allen Jr. and George E. Allen Sr., six grandchildren, one sister, Mrs. Evie Lawson; a brother Bernard Allen

Mrs. Delores Flowers, elem. school teacher

Mrs. Delores Flowers, 47, died June 22 at Sinai Hospital after a brief illness.

The family will receive friends June 30, 7 p.m. at Emmanuel Christian Community Church, Lanvale and Carrollton Ave., with last rites starting at 7:30 p.m.

Born in Baltimore, Mrs. Flowers was the daughter of Mrs. Beatrice Saunders and the late Moses Cinns. At the time of her death, she was employed at Beechfield Elementary School as a senior teacher.

Mrs. Flowers is a graduate of Morgan State College and received her master's degree from Coppin State College.

She has been teaching elementary school for 24 years and was a member of the BTU - UTBC. She was also active member of the Teacher Advisory Council Region eight, former building representative for School 29; a member of the Teacher Advisory Council Region seven.

Mrs. Flowers was also active for five years in Urban Rural Project for Human Relations Community Services, active with the National Urban League.

In addition to her mother, she is survived by three children, Maxwell, Michael and Diane Flowers and one grandchild, Diane Flowers Grave.

Orchids and onions about vacant houses, firecrackers . . .

By Ida Peters-Director
Elizabeth Jacobs, Assistant

Onions to resident in the AFRO Clean Block in the 1500 blk of Edmondson Avenue. You know who you are, those of you who put out bags of trash on the corner of Fulton and Edmondson after the trash collectors leave.

Why not work with your captain to have a clean clock instead of making a habit of non - participation. If you take an interest, you will be setting a good example for your children.

WARNING

Firecrackers are a hazard in this neighborhood as well as in many throughout the city. Caution your children about throwing lighted objects at each other. The loss of an eye, damage to ears, and loss of a finger are not worth the 35 cents package of noise.

Captains and Advisors attending last week's AFRO Clean Block meeting reported many problems they need help with from city agencies.

Claude Patterson Rat Eradication 396 - 7710; George Parrish, Consumer Services 396 - 3166. George Parrish, Consumer Services 396 - 3166; Bernard Williams, Fire Department, 396 - 1745; Reginald Scriber, 396 - 0028; and Leonard Folio, Sanitation 539 - 5151 had all promised help in getting blocks in shape.

Ms. Olakisi James. Advisor for 2800 blk Parkwood Avenue has complained about the vacant house at 2923 Parkwood Avenue. HCD has made one inspection and a follow - up may be necessary.

The vacant store at 2843 Parkwood was reported last year. At present, it is a vacation spot for rats. The rats roam the street after a rainfall.

At 2846 Parkwood, the landlord has begun work on the exterior of an apartment building. The outside wall needs to be painted and the front door needs fixing. At 2800 Parkwood, there is a rat problem in the alley.

Tina Rice, captain in the 1000 blk of Argyle Avenue has one house in her neighborhood that won't keep their lawn up. They also have a problem with rats and mice. Your rat problem is being turned over to Claude Patterson, Rat Eradication. On the other, why not call all your workers out on Saturday and help that one neighbor. It's better than complaining and having an unsightly block.

The 2700 blk of Giles Road in Cherry Hill is having a problem with stray cats and dogs, where Mrs. L. Daniels is advisor, Angela Harris, co - captain and Nora Chialey, assistant advisor.

Mrs. Henrietta Mosley of the 2800 blk of Woodbrook has a problem with sanitation workers not picking up bulk trash. She also says they do not empty the container the city puts out. She would also like absentee landlords to fix up their properties in this block.

In the 1800 blk of Druid Hill, Mrs. Emma Jones, captain, is mounting an extensive campaign against rats, dirty yards, a filthy alley, and littering.

Captain Paul Fitch of the 1900 block N. Fulton Ave. has a problem with rats in the yard and alley at 1908.

The 1700 block of E. North Ave. is having problems with a vacant house at 1821—rats, bulk trash and dirty yards and alleys.

Wzekelll Woodry is complaining that there are rats in the 900 block of E. Biddle St. There is also a vacant house.

Leonard Washington, Advisor for 1700 Turrell Pl., has a problem of rat infestation, trash piles in the backyard and several condemned buildings.

Jackie Hopkins, Captain for 1800 N. Regester St. reports a vacant house with piles of trash in the backyard and furniture in the alleys.

At 2200 Druid Hill Ave., Captain James Blake is complaining about rats in the alleys, broken sidewalks, trees in need of trimming and vacant houses.

2600 Clifton Ave. has a burned out boarded house and a vacant dirty lot.

Captain Karen Cresby of 900 Rutland Ave. reports vacant houses at 928, 930, 935, and 941 Rutland Ave. She also reports bottles on the vacant lot.

Rev. Powell, Clean Block leader, ordained minister

Congratulations are in order for longtime AFRO Clean Block leader Rev. Mrs. Elinor D. Powell on Grayson Street who was ordained as a minister. The ceremonies were held when the United Church of Jesus Apostolic, Bishop Monore R. Saunders, head, held their 13th Holy Convocation on Baltimore National Pike from June 18 - 24.

Evangelist Powell served under Bishop R. Carr, Rehoboth Church of God for 18 years during which time she was commissioned an evangelist.

She and her late husband served with her present pastor, Bishop M. H. Saunders on his radio program, "The Hour of Concern" for many years.

During the convocation five women and seven men were elevated to the ministry from throughout the United States.

Park Heights Clean Block meeting

City officials have been invited by the Park Heights Community Corp. to a Clean Block meeting, July 2, 7 p.m. at 2700 W. Cold Spring Lane.

The area in the Southwest Quadrant will discuss problems of sanitation, dirty alleys, clogged sewers, stray dogs.

This area is bounded by Park Heights, east; Wabash, west; Druid Park Drive, south; and Shirley Avenue, North.

Leo Burroughs is director of Park Heights Community Corp.; Lester Bromell, community organizer and Triam Cannon, sanitation specialist.
