

CHAPTER 12.

AN ACT to authorize the County Commissioners of Charles County to pay to Ferdinand C. Cooksey the sum of one hundred ($100) dollars for extra services as State's Attorney during the year 1911.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the County Commissioners of Charles County be and are hereby authorized and directed, at the time of making the county levy for the year 1914, to levy for the use of Ferdinand C. Cooksey, the sum of one hundred dollars for services as State's Attorney for Charles County during the year 1911 in the cases of State of Maryland vs. Henry Brady, Tony Eva and George Wallace, said case having been heard in Westmoreland County, Virginia, and the case of State of Maryland vs. McPherson Crichton, heard in Montgomery County, Maryland, the local laws of Charles County preventing the allowance of extra compensation for these services except by a special Act of General Assembly.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved February 24th, 1914.

CHAPTER 13.

AN ACT to limit the time for taking oysters with rakes or tongs within the waters of West and Rhode Rivers, and their tributaries from October 15th to April 25th of each year.

WHEREAS, Many persons engaged in tonging oysters for a living in the lower waters of Anne Arundel County are of the opinion that it would be better to have a shorter season for taking oysters in the waters of West and Rhode Rivers, and their tributaries in Anne Arundel County; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That on and after the passage of this Act it shall not be lawful for any person to take or catch oysters within the waters of West or Rhode Rivers and their tributaries in Anne Arundel County except from the 15th day of October to the 25th day of April in each year, and for the purpose of this Act, a divisional line between the waters of West and Rhode Rivers, and the Chesapeake Bay shall be a straight line from
