
GOLDEN UPSETS — Black Americans captured gold medals in two stunning upsets at Monday's action in the Pan - Am Games at San Juan. In left panel, James Robinson (404) cracks Pan - American record and topples Olympic double - champion Alberto Juantorena (107) in 800 meters men's final. His time was 1:46.20, but it, and the victory, had to survive a foul claim by Jamaican Owen Hamilton who finished third. In right panel, Essie Kelly, (429) outduels American Champion Julie Brown in women's 800, in which Julie Kelly, a Prairie View (Texas) State University senior, also set a Pan - Am mark, being clocked in 2:01.2.

U. S. golds feature 2 big upsets but ex-Olympian protests one

SAN JUAN, (UPI) — James Robinson scored one of the major upsets of the year in international track Monday night when he beat Cuban Olympic champion Alberto Juantorena in the Pan-American Games 800-meter run but the victory was declared official only after a series of protests and confusion.

Robinson, the AAU champion from Oakland, Calif., burst through two runners in the final 50 yards and overhauled Juantorena at the finish line to win the men's 800 in 1:46.2. It marked the second time Robinson had beaten Juantorena at the distance in the past year.

But shortly after the race, his victory burst was protested when Jamaican Judge Herb McKenley, a former Olympic champion, claimed that Robinson had elbowed Owen Hamilton of Jamaica in his final dash to the wire, thus depriving him of a possible bronze medal. The protest was passed up to chief referee Uriel Tirado, who then passed it on to the logistics committee.

However, under the Pan-Am Games setup, the logistics committee can only rule on protests against officials and sent it back to Tirado. When he ruled that Robinson was the winner, then McKenley sent the protest back to the logistics committee as a protest a a referee's decision.

The logistics committee, a jury of appeals with members from Barbados, Puerto Rico, Brazil, Peru and Mexico, then rejected the foul claim after reviewing films of the finish for 15 minutes.

Robinson's victory gave the U.S. a sensational double over "Cuba's best middle distance runners since" Essie Kelley also won the women's 800-meter race.

Kelley, the AAU champion from Prairie View, Texas, held off a late surge by teammate Julie Brown of Norbridge, Calif., to win the event in 2:01.2. Cuba's Aurelia Penton, a 39-year-old grandmother, finished a distant third.

Balto. Eagles in Connecticut for AFC game

The Baltimore Eagles take their traveling show to Connecticut tonight (Friday) when they meet the defending champion Connecticut Sea Raiders in an Atlantic Football Conference game.

Connecticut went undefeated last year, and is working on a 14-game winning streak. The Sea Raiders plan their home games at East Lyme H.S. in East Lyme, Conn.

The Eagles are in comparatively good physical condition for the game. Defensive tackle Kevin Cunningham (6-8, 290) is the only starter to be on the doubtful list for the game.

"Jefferson Street" Joe Gilliam completed 14 of 23 passes for 280 yards and two touchdowns as the Eagles beat the Pittsburgh Colts of the Mid-Atlantic Football League 22 - 0. He was intercepted once. The ground troops rolled to 160 yards in 42 attempts. Fullbacks Rick Bielski and Dave Kirchoff combined for 81 yards in 15 carries.

Frank Russell with five catches for 87 yards and a touchdown, and Dan Bungori with three catches for 60 yards and a score were Gilliam's chief playmates. Running back Nate Munford gained 58 yards on three grabs, and picked up 16 yards on 4 runs.

The Redskins will hold scrimmages with the Baltimore Colts July 21 at Annapolis Navy - Marine stadium and July 28 at Dickinson College.

Pre - season begins Aug. 4 at Tampa Bay, Fla. The only home pre - season game will be against the Cleveland Browns Aug. 24.

Cal and Ron cash

Calvin Peete, who has been the most consistent black player on the pro tour this summer, tied for 10th place in the Western Open Golf Classic Sunday at Oak Brook, Ill.

Peete's 290 was four strokes off the first place tie between subsequent winner Larry Nelson and Ben Crenshaw. It was worth $7,500.

Baltimorean Ron Terry collected $1,321.88 for his 297, and Jim Thorpe scored 306 for $540.

Nehemiah scores 5th time in hot duel

SAN JUAN (UPI) — World record - holder Renaldo Nehemiah of Scotch Plains, N.J., won the battle in his personal cold war with Alejandro Casanas at the Pan - American Games Wednesday night when he beat the Cuban star for the fifth straight time in the 110 - meter hurdles to highlight the track and field competition.

Nehamiah, who had said the only reason he came to the Pan - Am Games was to face Casana, bolted into the lead and was never seriously challenged as he crossed the finish line in a game record of 13.30, two - tenths of a second off his own world mark of 13.00.

As he raced across the finish line ahead of Casana and teammate Charles Foster of Durham, N.C., Nehemiah raise his index finger high above his head to signify he was once again No. 1 in his specialty.

Casana took thesilver with a 13.46 while Foster picked up the bronze in 13.56.

Surprisingly, the race went off without a hitch. Nehemiah had predicted Casana would try to jump the gun but there was no indication that the Cuban broke before the starter's gun wet off.

In Jamaica last year, Casana was disqualified for false starting twice and Nehemiah race to victory virtually unchallenged.

"The race itself isn't that significant," said Nehmiah, referring to the Pan - American Games. "It was a personal battle between Casanas and myself to decide once and for all I can beat him under any terms. I love racing against Casanas. It makes me a better competitor but I think I'm better than he is."

Bits O' Briefs

Donkey doings

Phoebe's Donkey, Maryland - bred 2 - year - old filly queen of 1978 who appears to be a soo - in for another divisional title this year, si among 503 - year - old fillies nominated to the $30,000 - added Dogwood Stakes, Saturday, at Bowie (Md.) Race Course.

The one mile and one - sixteenth feature has attracted such stars as Too Many Sweets, Wondrous Me, Veiled Look, How Charming and Golferette, some of whom would be in contention for an Eclipse award had it not been for the presence of Calumet Farm's sensational Davona Dale.

Phoebe's Donkey, who finished runnerup to Davona Dale in Pimlico's Black - Eyed Susan Stakes, is coming off of a front running length and one - quarter victory in the mile and one - eighth Wistful Stakes at Belmont.

OJ has had it

San Francisco running back O. J. Simpson says he will leave football after the 1979 season even if it means forsaking his quest to surpass Jimmy Brown as the all - time leading rusher.

"This is definitely my last year," declared Simpson, who has previously hinted he would make a relatively premature exit from football. "You have to pay a price and I can't do that any more."

Simpson, a former Heisman Trophy winner from Southern California, trails Brown, the Hall of Fame fullback of the Cleveland Browns, by just 1,536 yards. That total represents a substantial achievement even for an expanded 16 - game schedule. Simpson, who broke the 2,000 - yard barrier in 1973, could reach it.

Sparks fly in Tuesday BNBL action

By Samuel Davis

Baltimore Neighborhood Basketball League action was at its best on Tueday.

Fans packed Madison Recreation Center, and several of them clung to the fence outside to get a view of the two AA unlimited playoff games.

For West Baltimore, who faced Cecil, and Bentalou, who earned the right to take on Rognel Heights, it was a do or die situation.

Both died but not without a fight.

Each took its opponent into overtime, but failed to hold on.

Officials Wayne Randall and Dale Halrod dished out a total of seven technical fouls.

In the first game, in which three teachs were issued, all to the winning team, Rognel fought off Bentalou, who led throughout most of the contest with the exception of halftime when she trailed by one 23 - 24.

Rognel's tying bucket came from Sam Sewell who owned one of the technical fouls. With five seconds on the clock and the score 57 - 55 in favor of Bentalou, the ball was inbounded to Jim Drew. He raced to the top of tke key with a defender guarding closely, tossed up a jumpshot which fell off the rim. Sewell, with tremendous body control, made what could hve been a tap a slamp dunk to tie the score.

In the two - minute overtime, Sewell picked up two more points and his teammated added eight. And along with good defense they held Bentalou scorleess in overtime and won 65 - 57.

Sewell finished with a game high 18 points, followed by Charles Fowlkess 12 and Ed Taylor's 11, for Rognel.

Greg Vaughn paced Bentalou with 13. Trailing were Tom Parsons 12, Ronald Smith and Marvin Raymond, 10 apiece.

The Cecil - West Baltimore game was marred with four technical fouls. One was against Cecil's Kevin Graham for an illegal shirt, and one on Graham for unsportsmanlike conduct.

West Baltimore got into the act also, as Tony Carter was slapped with two techs for bad - conduct.

Like Bentalou, West Baltimore took its opponent into overtime period. At the end of regulation the score stood at 42 - 42.

For Cecil, both stars Roger Dickens and Fred Wright were hot playing up to par. Each was shooting horribly from the floor. Brian Matthews and Robert Stanley had been the steady performers throughout the evening for Cecil. Both continued to star in overtime, scoring four points each.

Matthews quickly put his team ahead taking the period opening jumpball and slamming it home. His other two points came on a tap.

Stanley, who led allscores with 16, sank a crucial one and one with 15 seconds remaining. After that Tony Carter, missed a jumper for WB, Matthews grabbed the rebound and passed it to Wright who was fouled.

He sank both ends of a one - and - one to make the score 52 - 46.

West Baltimore scored again but time ran out.

Matthews followed Stanely with 12 points, Wright added nine and Graham contributed seven.

Gerald Watson led WB with 15, in front of Pat McKinley's 13 and Tony Carter's 10.

Rognel and Cecil will square off for the championship on Saturday (Aug. 4) at 6 p.m. at the Civic Center.

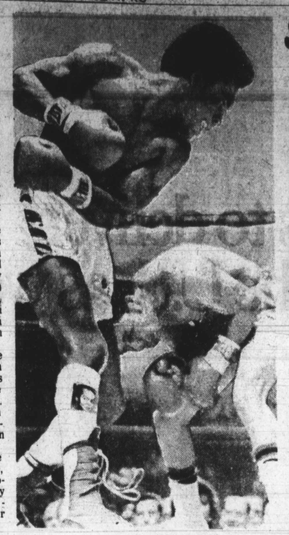
In other playoff action this week, Greenmount defeated Patterson 49 - 45 for the unlimited league title at thePatterson site.

John Eager Howard outlasted Lyndhurst 28 - 30 for the girls 18 - and - und title at Towanda.

John Eager Howard 18 and under boys were also victorius, as they got past Kendricks 44 - 40 for the league win at John Eager Howard.

Cub Hill routed B.C. Revels 60 - 39 to attain the Furley site 18 - and - under title.

In the same age group, Robert C. Marshall defeated Cherry Hill 48 - 45 to win the Robert C. Marshall league and Hilton fell to Lillian Jones 49 - 38 giving the latter the Bentalou league title.



Sugar Ray Leonard leaning toward the Caesars

Sugar Ray picks Vegas, Atlantic City for bouts

Indications are that Sugar Ray Leonard, beckoned by the Caesars, is listening.

The unbeaten, 23 - year - old Palmer Park (Md.) welterweight says he will stage his next two important fights at Atlantic City under the sponsorship of Caesars World, and at the Las Vegas site of Caesars Palace.

According to Leonard, he will box Pete Ranzany of California, Aug. 12, in Las Vegas, and his World Boxing Council title fight with champion Wilfredo Benitez will be held at Convention Hall in Atlantic City under Caesars World aegis.

Although plans for the Benitez bout have not been finalized, Leonard seems convinced the purse will reach $3.2 million dollars for him and Wilfredo.

Ali-Alzado on TV

The National Broadcasting Company has acquired the television rights to the eighth-round exhibition between former heavyweight champion Muhammad Ali and Denver Broncos defensive end Lyle Alzado.

NBC will present tape coverage of the fight, which is scheduled for Saturday in Mile High Stadium in Denver, on its "Sportsworld" program on Sunday.

Ex-Trotter coach

Former Harlem Globetrotter John Chavers is leaving the job he held for 16 years as basketball coach at Cleveland's East Tech High School to accept an assistant coaching post at St. Mary's College of California.

Chavers' East Tech teams ran up a 251 - 63 record and earned six city titles as well as one Ohio State championship. He played for college basketball at Baldwin Wallace before spending two seasons as a Globetrotter.

Jaycee junior meet at Essex

The Maryland Jaycees have scheduled junior athletics championship competitions tomorrow (Saturday) at Essex Community College.

The JAC is a program for boys and girls aged 8-16.

Youngsters from throughout the area usually compete in this annual affair, all seeking a late - July trip to the Nationals in Tulsa, Okla., as the reward for winning.

Lee drops, Cal rises in PGA

Lee Elder, perennial leading money winner among pro golf blacks, retained that position last week although dropping in the overall PGA standings.

Elder's idleness through the past two tour events fell to 40th place with his $59,510 earnings.

Busy Calvin Peete moved into the "magic 40" which eliminates the need for qualifying for weekly tournaments. His $85,584 places him 36th, five slots head of No. 41 Jim "Thorpe and his $83,377.

Alton joins local Vanguard at TSU

By Samuel Davis

Towson State basketball coach Vince Angotti has acquired yet another outstanding player from the Baltimore area for this coming season.

The Tigers, who have moved up to NCAA Division I status, will have the services of former Community College of Baltimore star Bobby Alton.

Alton averaged 16 points a game during the 1977-78 season, as CCB won 32 games and lost only four. The team won the Maryland junior college championship and the Region 20 tournament.

Alton, who stands 6-6 and weighs 180 pounds, joins small college all-american Joe Miller, Michael Lyles, Michael Sharpe and Donald Leslie as newcomers to Towson State from the Baltimore area.

Ron going

Despite the fact he wasn't picked for the event, Ron LeFlore of the Detroit Tigers is going to the All - Star Game in Seattle Tuesday. He has already paid for his tickets.

Unlike many players who fret about giving up what otherwise would be a 3 - day holiday, the fleet Tigers centerfielder said: "I just made up my mind to go whether I got chosen or not. I think all of us (ballplayers) should support it."

Carew misses second time

15 blacks at All-Star scene

By Sam Lacy

Fifteen black players — eight for the American League and seven for the National — will be on hand at the Major League All - Star Game Tuesday night at Seattle.

Unfortunately, however, perennial batting champion Rod Carew will do little more than occupy the AL bench. He is hurt and cannot play, even though he was a landslide winner in the fan balloting that picked the teams and placed him at first base.

It marks only the second time in his 12 - year presenie in the league that the California Angels star has missed the classic. Both times his absence was caused by injury.

Rod missed the 1970 game when, as a member of the Minnesota Twins, he was on the disabled list from June 24 through Sept. 1.

Five additional players joined starters Frank White, Jim Rice and (injured) Rod Carew to bring the total to eight blacks who will be in uniform on the American League side.

Although Carew will be on hand, the starting assignment at first base will fall to Cecil Cooper of the Milwaukee Brewers. He finished second in fan balloting.

Other AL additions are the Yankees' Reggie Jackson, the Orioles' Ken Singleton, the White Sox' Chet Lemon and the Angels' Don Baylor.

The trio of National Leaguers — San Diego's Dave Winfield, Pittsburgh's Dave Parker and Cincinnati's George Foster — are augmented by four other black stars.

Two - time MVP Joe Morgan was selected at second base from the Reds, sophomore shortstop sensation Gary Templeton was chosen from the Cardinal, all - time base stealing champion Lou Brock was named from the Cardinals, and speedy outfielder Garry Matthews was picked from the Atlanta Braves.

Odd-even trotters

LAUREL, Md. — As part of a state - wide effort to promote energy conservation, Laurel Raceway has started an odd - even promotion for every Tuesday and Wednesday night.

All passengers in cars that qualify to get gas on the respective odd and even Tuesdays and Wednesdays will be given half - price grandstand passes at the parking gates.

The new measure was announced last Wednesday by general manager Bill Alcorn, who said that the promotion will continue throughout the summer meet, which closes Sept. 29, or as long as the present allocation system for gas purchases is in effect.

Exciting action marks opening of Project Survival cage slate

By Samuel Davis

The Project Survival men's unlimited basketball season got under way on Saturday and Sunday.

Though the teams are not complete and players are being added each day, spectators got a good idea of what to expect from some of the contenders.

Roger Dickens, Rodney "Pop" Wright, Joe Pace, Tony Carter, Joe Miller, George Pinchback and Pat McKinley were just a few of the crowd pleasers who visited Walbrook, where all the unlimited games will be played.

Greenmount's squad is close to being a duplicate of BNBL's Rognel Heights AA unlimited team.

The only new member is Anthony Young. The rest of the team members, are Eddie Taylor, Charles Fowlkes, Jim Drew, Earl Bundy, Ivan Young, Sam Sewell, David Wise, Bill Newton, and Dave Sheppard.

Behind Newton and Bundy's combined 31 points, they defeated Camp Concern 68-68, in the opener.

On Sunday, Drew scored 18 and Taylor hit 16 as they defeated the Hustlers, 85-58.

Easterwood features a brother combination of Rodney and Fred Wright who scored 15 and 16 points on Saturday and 24 and 23 points on Sunday, respectively.

They defeated Cloverdale 79-68, and McKell 93-50.

Other outstanding players like Dickie Kelly, Brian Matthews, Bobby Stanley and Greg Vaughn are also members of the squad.

A. C. Due doesn't have any of the really big names in Baltimore city on its squad, but its a tough team fundamentally.

Balanced scoring has proved to be one of the trademarks. For example, in Sunday's win over Wayne Reed Associates, only Jeff King scored in double figures. He had 12.

A. C. topped the Hustlers 67-49 on Saturday.

The Concern team consists of such well - known names as Harry Watson, Joe Pace, Mickey Heard, James Hayes, Leon Love, Bobby Alton, and Tony Carter. They lost to Greenmount on Saturday, and beat Bentalou on Sunday.

Bentalou, which beat Wayne Reed on Saturday, has the services of talented players such as Roger Dickens, Nathaniel Eades, Marvin Payne, Joe Miller and Kevin Francis.

Led by Pat McKinley, Al and Walter Leslie, and Earl Garner, Cloverdale fell to Easterwood on Saturday but bounced back to defeat Saint Edwards on Sunday.

Edwards beat McKell 69-56 Saturday. They are led by Essex star Dorian Gray.

Pine Ridge to showcase pretty talent

The smart aleck who once said that ability and beauty don't mix, should be compelled to take a peek at the field in the Greater Baltimore Golf Classic next Friday through Sunday (20-22) at the Pine Ridge Golf Course.

This year's renewal of the annual LPGA event boasts an entry list that belies all the "beautiful but dumb "cliches of women's sports history.

Photogenic Nancy Lopez may be the best combination of both, but the "darling of the fairways" will have a lot of competition.

Marlene Floyd, sister of touring pro Raymond Floyd, is a former airlines stewardess and an accomplished links-gal.

Blonde Pam Higgins is a stunner who has won $183,846.66 in her career. Vivacious Jan Stephenson, provocative Sally Little and comely Mary Ben Porter also have the potential to win as either golf stars or poster girls.

Local amateurs wishing to join the fray may qualify Tuesday, beginning at 9 a.m.

Proceeds from the tournament go to a charity fund administered by the Golfers Charitable Association of Maryland.

BY THE WAY...

By Joe Black

Throughout the centuries, countless schemes and outright rackets have deprived the Black community of millions of dollars of gross income.

They've wasted the talents and skills of legions of Black youths.

We've had more than our share of pimps, hookers, grifters, pushers, boosters, and hoodlums.

But, somehow, we've survived.

However, as I travel today to many of the cities in America, I am frightened of what I see happening to Black Americans. Blacks are so busy doing their own thing, they fail to recognize the big ripoff being perpetrated by the power structure.

Not racism. But rather, how our greed and stereotyped self-image blind us to the tricks of "the man." Instead of using our God-given minds, too many Black people thrilled "right on" when the National Administration and certain cities pushed for the decriminalization of marijuana possession. Like lambs being led to slaughter, too many Blacks smiled approval. Because it strengthened their rationale that grass isn't harmful.

I don't give an opinion based on personal experience, but based on statements from former addicts who appear at drug abuse seminars sponsored by my employer. Marijuana users can develop a psychological dependence on the drug. Which can lead to harder stuff. And a harder high.

We have a hard enough time getting a first chance. When you leave it to the discretion of the police to arrest or reprimand an individual, how many Blacks do you think will get a second chance.

Let's get smart and resist all programs that will make it easy for any pusher to operate in our neighborhoods.

The life you save may be your son's. Your daughter's. Your brother's. Your sister's.

Or, your own.
