Wanted: New captains

By Elizabeth Jacobs

While looking through the Clean Block card file for this year and 1978, I noticed that the 1000 blk. of Druid Hill Ave. was not registered this year but was a participant last year.

This sparked a new goal — to find a captain for this block for 1979. To start off, I went back to some Clean Blockers from previous years. The first person visited was Arthur Smith who had been an active worker with the program but will not be able to participate this year due to illness.

A few doors away from Arthur Smith, lives Ms. Christine White who was standing outside in front of her door when I approached her about being captain. She said yes, without hesitation.

Other Argyle Avenue blocks were missing from this year's files with the exception of those where the very active Murphy Homes are located. Starting from the 1500 blk. of Argyle Ave., kept my eyes open for any possible captains. From the 1500 blk. throulh the 1300 blk., I was unsuccessful in finding captains. When I reached the 1200 blk., I had a change of luck and found Mrs. Doris Williams for captain. In the 1100 blk., Leslie Bruce volunteered for captain and in the 1000 blk., Mrs. Cooper is now captain.

The 900 blk. of Gilmor Street met at the We Need Prayer Headquarters to plan their 1979 Clean Block effort. Block captain is Kia Banks; Eddie Phillips, co - captain; Rev. Antoinette Phillips and Kadija, advisors.

Mary Craig of the 800 block of McKim St. cannot put down any names for helpers because she does not have any. Please help.

Clean Blockers in the 1600 block of Edmondson Ave. are having a problem with people throwing trash in the alleys right after they clean them out. Also, in the 1500 blk. of Edmondson and Gilmor St. people are putting trash by an empty building on the corner. Young people on this block endanger their lives as well as the lives of others and plants when they play football and frizbees in the street.

The residents of Ballou Ct., 200 blk., are on the move and working together to clean up and beautify their block. They are grateful to a lot of people. First of all, they thank the AFRO and Mrs. Len Bullock for donating plants (Mrs. Bullock donated plants from her yard) and for assisting in planting the flowers.

The captain, Ethel Hobbs, gives special thanks to Mrs. Jeannie Pettiway, Mrs. Margie Murphy and William Taylor for collecting old tires and painting them for the yards. Thanks is given to Mrs. Betty Jackson for getting bricks for the border and walkways of the yards.

Thanks also to the children who water the plants and help to make Ballou Ct. a clean block.

Mrs. Jeannie Pettiway, Advisor for the 200 blk. of Ballou Ct., has drawn up a color scheme and yard arrangements for the court.
