

except as follows: For every execution of the sentence of death by said sheriff, upon any person convicted of a capital offense, they shall pay him the sum of three hundred dollars; for carrying and conveying any person or persons under sentence to any State institution or to or from any jail of any other county, or the jail or station-houses of the City of Baltimore, or to or from any other place of confinement beyond the limits of Harford County, under the sentence or final order of any authorized judicial authority, the said Board of County Commissioners shall pay unto the said sheriff his actual car fare or actual cost of transportation, together with the actual car fare or actual costs of transportation of such person or persons so carried or conveyed to the place or places above mentioned.

SEC. 251. It shall be the duty of the sheriff to keep a correct and full statement or schedule of all persons committed to the said jail, showing the length of time and the offense for which they are committed, and the name of the officer by whom committed, which statement or schedule, together with all books, papers and commitments kept by him, pertaining to prisoners in the jail, shall, at all times, be open to the inspection of any person or persons; and at the first meeting of the Board of County Commissioners of said county, in each and every month, the said sheriff shall make and file with them, under oath, a full and complete report of the names and descriptions of all persons confined in said jail, with a statement of the length of time and offense for which they are committed, and for any neglect of the sheriff to comply with any provision of this section, he shall be subject upon indictment and conviction to a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and not more than five hundred dollars, and in default of payment of said fine, he shall be confined in the county jail for a period not exceeding one year.

SEC. 251-A. It shall be the duty of the Board of County Commissioners of Harford County to furnish all supplies and provisions necessary in their judgment for the support and maintenance of all persons committed to the jail of said county, and all fuel and light needed for the comfort of the prisoners in said jail.

SEC. 251-B. All sheriff's costs collected by justices of the peace in criminal cases shall be accounted for to the County Commissioners in the same manner as fines collected by them in such cases are now accounted for.