Another lovely summer wedding

By Marjorie R. Green

In a simple picturesque ceremony performed by the Rev. Dr. Logan Kearse at Cornerstone Church of Christ on Saturday, June 30, Jean Louise Murray, C and P Telephone Company employee, became the wife of SSA'er Richard "Dickie" Norris.

Ignoring the traditional white gown, the bride wore a sheer orange shaded gown that was complimented by the orange print gowns worn by her attendants and the grooms's formal beige attire.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Earl Murray.

Her sister, Sara Nowell, was matorn of honor. Two other sisters, Carolyn Putney and Jean Murray were bridesmaids.

Joseph Norris served as his brother's best man and two other borthers, Carl and Leroy Norris and Ruby Forbes, mother of the groom, were also part of the wedding party.

The flower girl was Donna Johnson and Michael Isabelle was ring bearer.

Claudette Davis was soloist.

A reception was held at the La Paragon's Room following the wedding.

Out of town guests were from Washington, Pennsylvania and Maryland.

Retirement party

A retirement party will be held at Martin's West on Friday, Aug. 3, for James "Ricky" Richardson. Reservations can be made by contacting Wilbert Cooper of Jacqueline Veney.

Performance

The SSA Chorus will be performing at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church, East Belvedere Avenua, Sunday, July 22.

Training seminar

Te Social Security Administration, in an effort to assure better service to the public, held a training seminar involving the Baltimore City Department of Social Services in Woodlawn last week.

The seminar, coordinated by Bernice White, headquarters coordination and liaison staff, Office of Governmental Affairs, (OGA), provided an opportunity for Social Service workers with direct public contact to gain a butter understanding of Social Security and its related programs.

During the four-hour session, two representatives from local Social Secutity offices explained the major provisions and benefit computatio procedures of the Social Secutiry Insurance programs.

Fred Crawford, Office of Governmental Affairs, presented detailed information on the concerns of the handicapped. Participants represented offices located in Baltimore City, Towson and Glen Burnie complex.

Prior to last week's session, OGA staff members accompanied by Social Security district office personnel, visited the Urban Services Agency Headquarters, 11 E. Mt. Royal Ave. in Baltimore City and conducted a similar meeting for Urban Service workers who serve as advocates for inner cit recipients and potential recipients of Social Security. Additional programs are planned in the near future.
