

635. Every Warden, or other employee connected with any of said institutions, shall in the discretion of the said Board of Prison Control, be required to execute a bond to the State, with security to be approved by the said Board and in no manner connected with any of said institutions, and in such sum as the said Board may deem proper, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties required of them respectively by the laws of this State and the rules and regulations that may be adopted from time to time by the said State Board of Prison Control; and the said bond shall be filed in the Executive Department of the State and a certified copy thereof, under the seal of the State, shall be evidence in actions upon said Bond, and the said Board shall be authorized in the name of the State and for the use of said Board, to institute suit on said bond for any breach thereof. If any of the persons aforesaid shall neglect to execute a bond as herein prescribed within twenty days after having been directed so to do by the said Board the said delinquent shall be dismissed from his employment.

636. The said Board shall have full power and authority to make, repeal, alter or amend such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, for the maintenance, discipline and conduct of institutions, prisoners, officials and employees, by this Act placed under its supervision or control, as may be necessary and convenient for the proper administration of the power, authority and discretion conferred upon it by this Act. Every member of said Board, and every employee thereof, and every Warden, and other employees connected with any of said institutions, shall perform and discharge the duties that may be assigned to him by law or by the rules and regulations of said Board, not inconsistent with law; and, if any of the persons aforesaid, after having accepted his office or employment, shall omit or refuse to discharge any such duty, or shall otherwise violate any of the provisions of law or any of the rules and regulations of said Board, not inconsistent with law, he shall forthwith be dismissed from his office or employment.

637. Each prisoner in any of said institutions shall be entitled to a diminution of the period of his confinement under the following rules and regulations:

(1) For each calendar month commencing on the first day of the month next after his arrival at the institution, during which he shall not be guilty of a violation of the discipline or any of the rules thereof, and shall labor with diligence and
