

ABERDEEN.

Section 1. The citizens of Aberdeen and its vicinity, in Harford County, be and they are hereby constituted a body corporate, by the name of "The Commissioners of Aberdeen," and by that name may have perpetuate succession, sue and be sued, and have and use a common seal.

2. The limits of said town shall be as follows: Beginning at a set stone, Market 1, in the line of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad on the easterly side thereof, and opposite the northeast corner of the late John James' farm, and in a line of said land extended, and running and bounding on said line to the end thereof, and continuing the same course (magnetically) with an averaged bearing north fifty-nine and one-half degrees west, forty-two hundred feet to a stone (to be set) in the line of the land purchased by the Aberdeen Land Company, thence north forty-five degrees west, eleven hundred and forty-seven and one-half feet to a stone, to be set, at the southwest corner of a lot of land belonging to . . . . ., thence parallel with a line drawn north forty-five and three-quarters degrees west, from a set stone in Bel Air Avenue, near C. W. Baker's dwelling and at the junction of the road to Paradise to a point intersecting the line binding the westerly side of Mrs. Dr. Hay's land, extended or otherwise, thence binding on said Mrs. Hay's line (magnetically) north fifteen and one-half degrees east, to intersect the end of the line drawn north forty-five and three-quarters degrees west, two thousand and sixty feet from the stone in Bel Air Avenue, thence still north fifteen and one-half degrees, east four hundred and fifty feet, thence parallel with the north, forty-five and three-quarters degrees west, two thousand and sixty feet line south forty-five and three-quarters degrees east, until it intersects the line drawn north twenty-seven degrees east from the aforesaid set stone in Bel Air Avenue, thence binding thereon north twenty-seven degrees east, to a set stone on the east side of the public road at the northwest corner of C. W. Baker's farm, thence binding on the line of said C. W. Baker's land, north fifty-five degrees east, two thousand four hundred and fifty feet to a set stone, thence about south fifty-nine and one-half degrees east, to a point in the line of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad on the easterly side thereof, thence binding on the lines of said railroad in a southwesterly direction six hundred and seventy-six feet to a stone (to be set), thence south forty-eight and three-quarters degrees east (re-