

places within each election district of said County; provided, however, that if for any reason said notice shall not be given, or not given in the manner prescribed by law, such failure of publication of said notice shall not affect the validity of this Act nor operate to prevent its taking effect.

If the said question is submitted at a regular election held in said Washington County, the laws of this State affecting general elections in said County shall apply in all particulars not herein otherwise provided for. If, however, the Supervisors of Elections for Washington County shall order a special election, then they shall deliver to the proper officers all registration books and ballot boxes for use at the said special election in the manner as now provided for use at general elections held in this State.

The Board of Supervisors of Elections for said Washington County shall, not later than twenty (20) days prior to the date of the said special election select and appoint four judges and two clerks for each election precinct in said County to serve at said special election and shall duly notify them of their selection and appointment. Said judges and clerks shall qualify in the same manner as now prescribed by law for the qualification of judges and clerks at any general election held in this State before the date of said special election: two judges and one clerk in each of the said election precincts shall be selected and appointed by the Supervisors of Elections so as to bona fide represent each of the opposing sides upon the question hereby submitted; and in the selection and appointment of such judges and clerks the supervisors of elections aforesaid, if requested, shall make the same from a list of eight names from each of said election precincts as presented to them by an organization or general committee which may be managing the interests of those in favor of and those opposed to the proposition to be submitted at the said special election. Said special election shall be held and conducted at the same place and in the same manner as other elections are held and conducted, and the necessary expenses of the same shall be paid for by Washington County in the same manner as provided for in the case of a general election held in said County.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That if the said question shall be submitted at the general election as provided for in Section 1 of this Act, then the Supervisors of Elections for Washington County shall have printed upon the ballots in a separate column after the names of candidates the following proposi-
