

tion: "Shall the sale of intoxicating liquors be licensed in Washington County?" Under said proposition shall be printed the words "For license" and "Against license" on separate lines, printed thereon in bold, twelve-point pica type, with a square or a box to the right and opposite the words "For license" and a corresponding square or box to the right and opposite the words "Against license." And all ballots used in the aforesaid special election in said County shall be printed in the same uniform type, upon plain white printing paper of ordinary book weight, of uniform size, and the following proposition shall be printed in clear, plain, bold Roman capitals, twelve-point pica type: "Shall the sale of intoxicating liquors be licensed in Washington County?" Under said proposition shall be printed the words "For license" and "Against license" on separate lines, printed thereon in bold, twelve-point pica type, with a square or a box to the right and opposite the words "For license" and a corresponding square or box to the right and opposite the words "Against license."

At any election when the said proposition is submitted the persons managing the interests of those in favor of and the persons managing the interests of those opposed to said proposition shall have respectively the right to designate and keep a challenger and a watcher at such election place. A certificate signed by the managing officer of the committee managing the interests of those in favor of and those opposed to said proposition shall be sufficient evidence of the right of such challenger and such watcher to be in the polling room. Such challenger and such watcher shall have the powers conferred upon challengers and watchers at general elections held in this State by Section 64 of Article 33 of Bagby's Annotated Code of Public General Laws of Maryland.

The ballots above mentioned shall be so printed as to give each voter a clear opportunity to designate by a cross in a square opposite the words "For license" and in a square opposite the words "Against license" his answer to such question. On the back and outside of all ballots used at such special election shall be printed the words "Official ballot for" followed by the designation of the polling place for which it is prepared, the date of the election and a fac simile of the signature of the president of the Board of Supervisors of Elections by whom the ballots have been prepared. Said ballots shall be printed on the same leaf with a detachable stub or coupon one inch high and three inches wide above the upper right hand
